Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kirk, Sr., and family were hosts to the John Kirk family reunion Sunday at the Ken Kittles of Westley road. With the family serving themselves from buffet tables, 84 aunts, uncles and cousins gathered together to eat under the apple trees.

Following 'luncheon' the young people from the sandbox set to the record-corner group had fun. They played horseshoes, croquet, badminton, ping pong and volley ball. Youngsters played 'Win a Prize' by throwing bean bags through pockets on a huge clown.

A business meeting was conducted by president Harry T. Kirk and group pictures were taken for the family tree book. The family is now represented by a fifth generation and Grandfather John Kirk would have been 112 years old on the day of the reunion.

From a family of nine children the remaining three brothers and a sister were able to be together. Families represented were, the James Kirks, 14; Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Davis, 15; the Bert Thurston family, 18; Mr. and Mrs. Willie Kirk, 11; the Robert D. Kirk represented by Mrs. Dale Kirk and son, Bob; and the William Kirk family, 19.

Guests were Miss Edith McLeod, Mrs. Daniel Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chappell and Ronald Simmons.

This afternoon several members from the Valley Woods branch of the W.N.F.A. attended tea and a fashion show at the Jack Frost Fruit Farm in Washington, Mich.

Driving together were Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Michael Gimey, Mrs. Kenneth Kittle, Mrs. Mary Mark, Mrs. Charles Dewel, Mrs. Lewis Dempsey, Mrs. Fred Polidan and daughter, Connie, Mrs. Ted Parnas and daughter, Mrs. Frank Neward and Mrs. Wilson McClellan.

Next Monday Mrs. Robert Foley of Eastlady road will be hostess to the board at their August meeting. The coming year book and the season's program will be discussed.

The Witoszynskis also hosts last week to Mrs. Witoszynski's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Holm and their children, Patricia, Mary, Kathy and John from Pittsburgh, Pa. Another niece, Marilyn Holm, drove from Pittsburgh with the Holm's daughter, Patricia, to join the group.

The Witoszynskis had a dinner Thursday for their out-of-town guests. In addition to their four children, Karva, Michael, Diane and Robert, also present were Mrs. Witoszynski's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dolbowsky, and her brother, Harold, Holm Melnik and another aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Holota, Jr.

Sunday afternoon the Leo Vigis of Leomoor and their children, Susan and Leo, were hosts to their Leomoor drive home Saturday, accompanied by their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Young of Kansas City.

The youngsters were not home for long. Monday they left with their mother and sister, Sally, to visit their maternal grandmother and relatives in Anaconda and Butte, Mont.

Little Harold Richard, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Humbert, was baptized Sunday afternoon at Holy Name church in Birmingham. Godparents were his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Waligura of Detroit.

Present at the christening dinner at Devon Gables following the ceremony were his godparents, three sisters, Diane, Susan and Joan and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Humbert.

Beverly-Artesian Produces Local Good Samaritans

BEVERLYS—This is the story of the nine good Samaritans of the Beverly-Artesian area.

Come the first day of August, Bernard Hengshaugh of Marguerite got out his paint and brushes and set up his ladder to paint his home. But, unfortunately as he climbed the ladder, he slipped, fell and broke his wrist.

It was a work day. All the men of the neighborhood were gone and his wife shopping. The neighborhood wives rallied round and got him to a hospital, where required surgery was performed to remove crushed bones.

Bernard worried about that paint job. Son, Barney Jr., 11, offered to do the job with the help of brothers, Gregg and Mack, and sisters, Donna Jean and Nancy, but Daddy declined the loving offer.

However, last Sunday morning, certain stealthy individuals attended early church services. When Catherine and Bernard Hengshaugh left for church with their children, these gentlemen descended upon the Hengshaugh home with ladders and brushes and started to paint.

When the Hengshaugh returned, they were astounded at the activity around the home and found the painting job well toward completion. At noon, the wives made up a lunch for these energetic workmen.

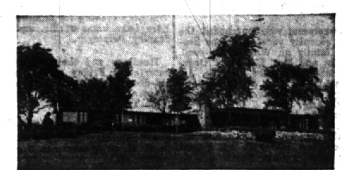

The nine Good Samaritan neighbors were Bud Shively, Jim O'Connell, Dan Rempus, Bill Clouder, Vince Fiorini, Vic Tarabust, Bob Monney, Grant Whitney and Al Reas. The Hengshaugh, who moved here from Flint, two years ago, commented that they never had such wonderful neighbors. Their act of kindness was overwhelming.

Helping with plans for the trip are Bob Johnson, Bill Pinkerton, Dick Hershberger, Jerry Lenartowicz, Joel Zaitz, Alex Neel, Mike Kelly, Donna Febraro, Karen Nead, Pam Soarls, Kenny Johnson, Dennis Foley and his guest, Mike Donnelly of Green Bay, Wis.

Gen. and Mrs. Joseph Harridge, who moved to Warwick road in July? They recently returned from Europe, where they have been traveling for eight months. Prior to that they lived in Pakistan for nine months. General Harridge, who is retired, is associated with the Chrysler missile plant.

Their son, Joseph R., resides at home, while their daughter, Mrs. Robert Warren Magee, lives in Yakona, Md.
