opening of activity in men's doubles.

NORM FREDERICKS and Howard Johnson Jr. won a hard-fought match from Bruno Kearns and Ralph Rauscher, 6-1, 6-2.

Bob Etkin and John Haugen, meanwhile, eliminated the father-son team of Sam Walker Jr. and Sam Walker III, 6-4, 6-2, and Jim Sargeant and Jim May ousted Tom Segal and Don Symon, 6-1, 6-2.

Alvin Sasa and John Barta form the fourth doubles semi-finals team.

Boys and girls action kept the Eton courts busy during morning and afternoon hours.

EMERGING AS one of the top boys' doubles contenders was the twosome of Bob Emmet and Steve Anderson, winners over Larry Beck and Gary Andrus in a tough Monday test, 7-5, 8-4.

Saturday will be the big day for the younger competitors.

Finals in boys' and girls' singles are scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Saturday, the doubles championship matches to follow at 3 p.m.

Champions in women's singles and men's singles and doubles will be crowned Sunday afternoon—women's singles at 2 p.m., men's singles at 3 p.m. and men's doubles at 4 p.m.

gun title, also at 1 point's necessary reaction park.

The regional match was a two-day, 12-inning marathon. Darkman halted the game after two innings Monday, the two teams tied at 5-5. Three straight singles decided it in the 12th frame Tuesday morning.

An estimated 2,000 fans, several hundred from Ohio, saw the thriller.

Tom Angell's first of two homers put Birmingham ahead, 1-0, in the first, but Elyria tied it by the second, then went ahead, 4-1, with two runs in the fourth and one in the fifth.

ANGELL'S 6-3-0-ND homer, with a man on, made it 4-3 in the bottom of the fifth. Bobbin Heavenly doubled to lead off the sixth and scored on a pinch single by Chuck Hatton with two out.

Elyria went ahead again with an eighth-inning run. Heavenly singled, then scored from third on a two-out single by Ken Savage to knot the score again in the bottom of the second of six extra innings.

Dave Kalocsay scored the winning run. He singled to lead off the 12th. Two more singles loaded the bases, an infield grounder by Mike McCassey sending the winning run home.

DICK MOSHER started on the mound for Birmingham, pitched nine innings and gave up eight hits. Jerry Kurz took over Tuesday morning, hurled six and got the win. Birmingham collected 12 hits off two Elyria pitchers.

Heavy midweek downpours forced two postponements and Birmingham had to play two games Friday to reach the finals of the state tourney.

Angell tossed a four-hitter in the first game in a 2-1 extra-inning triumph over Port Huron. Birmingham also garnered four hits.

MOSHER TOOK over the mound chores in the second game, giving up four hits in a 4-1 defeat of Alpena. Birmingham scored once in the first, twice in the second and once in the fourth, on a homer by Angell.

Birmingham staged a tremendous fifth-inning comeback to tie the rest of the way and got the win, Birmingham collected 12 hits off two Elyria pitchers.

Hamtramck's five-year reign as Michigan Little League king Saturday evening.

Angell was the starter and winner. Heavenly pitched the sixth inning, retiring Hamtramck 1-2-3 on a brilliant relief job.

Hamtramck picked up single runs in the second and third innings and the defending champion's pitcher gave up just one hit until the fifth.

JIM FLEISCHMANN and McCassey drew walks to lead off the fifth. Savage fled out to right field, then Mosher hit a sixting single to drive both Fleischmann and McCassey home.

Angell came up next and he

DAVISON—Paul Pace of Bloomfield Hills won the fourth annual Michigan shotgun championship here Sunday. He defeated Arthur Hickey of Saginaw in a shootoff.

Each team collected three hits in the game. 1-0 Angell, with 12 hits in 28 trips to the plate, is Birmingham's leading batsman through tourney play with a .428 average. His hit total includes five home runs and four doubles. He has driven in 18 runs.
