

PTA Officers Are Listed For Birmingham Schools

PTA is a volunteer organization of parents, teachers, and other citizens who care deeply about children and youth, the schools they attend, the communities they live in, and their opportunities for growth into happy, healthy, responsible citizens.

Its objects are:
• To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community.
• To raise the standards of home life.

• To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
• To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may co-operate intelligently in the training of their child.

• To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

As a member of your local PTA, you belong to a nation-wide, democratic, volunteer organization—the National Congress of Parents and Teachers—that centers its whole interest on the welfare and education of children and youth.

In this Back to School issue we bring you the elected PTA officers in our local school system, along with the publicity chairman, and meeting dates.
