

Bloomfield Gets Two New Schools, More Classrooms

Two new schools, a six-classroom addition and 32 new teachers to the list of Bloomfield school's summer revamping program. The $1,300,000 Bloomfield Hills junior high school at Quarton road will be opened in September. According to school officials, the access roads should be blacktopped and the landscaping completed for its opening.

PINE LAKE elementary school on Pine Lake road will serve 150 to 200 area children. Landscaping and blacktopping there also should be finished by the time school opens. The approximate expenditure for the structure is $300,000. The six-room addition to East-over school will accommodate some 150 additional students. Cost for the addition is an estimated $180,000.

Thirty-two teachers have been hired to staff the new schools and the Eastover addition.

ALL BLOOMFIELD schools were completely cleaned. Some were redecorated. Equipment for the Pine Lake elementary and the Bloomfield Hills junior high school were also purchased.

According to school officials, Andover road blacktopping plans are about to be started in the Bloomfield high school area.

Lathrup Youngsters' School

Most youngsters, who live in Lathrup village as well as some from neighboring areas attend Annie Lathrup school, 27700 Southfield road. Parents whose children have been switched from one school in the Southfield district to another have been notified of the change. Registration of new children will be the last week of August—parents who have moved to Lathrup should report to Lathrup school.

Boys' Wardrobes Need Versatility For All Occasions

Assembling a boy's back-to-school wardrobe this fall becomes above all a matter of choosing appropriate togs for every phase of his many faceted life in and out of the classroom.

Wearing the proper attire on every occasion can add immeasurably to a lad's confidence and self-assurance.

Favored for classroom wear are flannel or covert slacks with sports jacket. Less formal, but equally acceptable, are neat chino slacks with lightweight pullover or cardigan sweaters. This garb is especially suitable for laboratory or shop work. In the case of the latter, blue jeans are sometimes worn. Plenty of sport shirts are basic to a school boy's wardrobe.

FOR DRESS-UP occasions, such as church, parties and other social affairs, suits are indicated, along with white dress shirts and neckties.

For going back and forth to school in cold weather, a fingertip length outercoat will combine ample weather protection with the freedom of action the active boy demands.

For more formal wear, a topcoat is the thing, while a raincoat for wet weather protection is a "must."

Outdoor play will call for zippered jackets and bulky knit sweaters, along with denim or khaki slacks.

Caps for school and play, and a felt hat for dress-up wear along with sturdy, serviceable shoes for all occasions complete the picture of outfitting the boy for school from head to toe.

Good dress is easy for the boy if his clothes are selected according to function. This fall it's fun because there are so many handsome new styles.
