

Do you believe you would be perfectly happy if you were without a single problem, concern, or irritation... with jobs of money for economic security? Do you believe, were this possible, that you would not be living in the Kingdom of Boredom? Can you imagine an environment less undesirable than the overwhelming monotony of dullness?

Horatio Blackmore Lewis Claims Bride Saturday

MRS. HORATIO LEWIS II

Margaret Ann Williams and Horatio Blackmore Lewis II, were united in marriage at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at St. James Episcopal church in Birmingham.

Dr. Arthur F. Plant performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David G. Williams of Groove Pointe and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril B. Lewis of Lakeview drive, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was fashioned of white mousseline de soie trimmed with duchess lace on fitted bodice featuring square neckline, short sleeves, full skirt with panels of lace and chapel train. Here silk illusion fingertip veil fell from a headpiece of pearls accented by a drop pearl on the forehead. A bouquet of orchids and statice completed the bridal picture.

HESTER LEWIS, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Evelyn Keller and Barbara Mirani. Attendants were groomed in Dior blue silk organza with draped bodices, street length harem skirts caught up with satin bows. They wore matching organza flat bows and carried white champagne bouquets and veils.

Dean E. Roberts stood as best man. Ushers were Richard Guenther, Barry Farber, Robert Gole, Jr., Robert Hallbrook, Jr., Frank Macartney and John Keytel.

Undergraduate Beach Party For 22 Eastern Colleges

Birmingham Wesleyan club will party and may make individual reservations. Reservations for all eastern college undergraduates should be made by Aug. 30 with Sept. 4 at Orchard Lake Country Club picnic grounds. The party will be from noon until 4 p.m. and a light T. McNaughton, 248 Elgin picnic lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. Swimming and tennis will offer the young people a chance to become acquainted before they leave for eastern colleges.

Students living in Oakland county and Northwest Detroit are invited and urged to contact the alumni group of their own college for arrangements. Those students not represented locally by alumni groups are welcome to attend the

Visit Jungle Gardens

During a recent visit to the West Coast of Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. Olson and family of Manchester road, Birmingham, enjoyed a trip through Sarasota Jungle Gardens where they saw colorful wildflower from every continent, roaming ungaged amid some of Florida's most beautiful scenery. They were particularly interested in viewing the flock of 40 vivid flamingos at close range, and in the display of giant Royal Palms which border the jungle trails.

Three-Year-Old 'Turtle'

Patty Lyons doesn't mind being called "turtle"... as a matter of fact she thinks it's rather glamorous since she is the youngest (age 9) of eight boys and girls taking Red Cross swimming instructions. The youngsters completed the ten-week course Thursday in the pool at the Morgan B. Lawtons on Kenwood court, after which they all received diplomas. Presenting the

Famous Violinist Is Guest

The Wayne Beitelis of Whiteleigh and Cranbrook road were hosts Sunday to the renowned David Rubinoff, world famous violinist.

Dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vershure of Union Lake, the John Bocsis and son, Lee of Southfield, Alice Putnam of Detroit, Jeanne, Betty Jo and Gary, children of the Beitelis. Rubinoff played several selections on his famous $100,000 Stradivarius, including the well known and loved Debussy's "Clair de Lune", Chopin's "Polonaise", "Warsaw Concerto", "Jealousy" and many others made famous by his magic fingers.

Presently residing in Detroit, Rubinoff is busily engaged in the planning and organizing of a school for instructing handicapped children.

Branches, Luncheons and Showers

Several parties are honoring Dorothy Gay Wright preceding her Aug. 23 marriage to Louis F. Vela. The bride elect, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Russell M. Wright of Bloomfield Hills and her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Vela will exchange vows at three o'clock in the gardens of Kirk-in-the-Hills.

Parties already given include a luncheon and miscellaneous shower by Mrs. L. G. Huddle, Mrs. Kenneth Moore, and Mrs. Robert Homan at the home of Mrs. Huddle in Pleasant Ridge; a Sunday brunch and kitchen shower by Mrs. John Hauser and daughter, Mrs. Gerald Gilbert (Julie Hauser) at Mrs. Hauser's Birmingham home; a brunch and bedroom-bathroom shower by Mrs. Arthur McDonald, Mrs. John Nagel, and Mrs. K. C. Gano at the home of Mrs. Nagel in Metamora.

SHE WILL also be entertained at a luncheon at the Detroit Athletic club by Mrs. Gay Bratton and her daughter, Mrs. William Mercer; Mrs. Miller Bushnell and her daughter, Barbara Mason will entertain the bridal party at their home in Bloomfield at a bar and bridge shower and a Sunday night supper.

Mrs. H. C. Zimmerman will sponsor the spinsters' party including a girls' wedding, their mothers, the groom's mother and aunt, and the bride's grandmother at the Detroit Golf club.

Mr. and Mrs. Vela, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. D. Beck of Roslyn road, will entertain the bridal party at a dinner following the rehearsal at the Groove Pointe Yacht club, Friday, August twenty-second.

Better Re-confirm Your Membership

Season will get off to a lively start for Beverly Hills Dance club when members gather Sept. 20 at Birmingham Country club.

An innovation with the club will be several attractive prizes for members who arrive before 10 p.m. for the opening dance.

A Mardi Gras motif will feature the third dance, scheduled for Jan. 31, with prizes for the most original and funniest costume.

Remaining dance dates are Nov. 1, April 4 and an anticipated bonus dance on May 2. All members are urged to reconfirm their memberships before Sept. 1. After that date, unconfirmed memberships will be made available to the club's waiting list.

Six Past... Five in the Offing

Showers and parties stretching over three months... no wonder with 11 of them... have been keeping Sept. 6 bride-elect Kathleen Pomeroy on her toes. There has been lots of gay chatter about those in the past and plenty more for the future with five more dates on the calendar circled.

A coffee hour by the pool this morning was the doings of Mrs. John Dinkelo of Shepardsbush road.

Comes Sept. 2 a supper party at the William McGov home on Fairway drive, shared by the Benjamin Miconis of Bloomfield Hills and the Lincoln Parkers of Franklin will bring together a group of juniors and their seniors.

The spatter dinner will be given by Mrs. Walter Ebling and her mother, Mrs. Allen Parrish of Big Beaver road on Sept. 4th and the rehearsal dinner will be hosted by the Arthur Beaudry at the Fox and Hounds on the following day.

Ann McDonald and her parents, the Arthur McDonalds of Dorchester road are inviting the "gals" of the bridal party and other close friends to a breakfast Saturday morning... the wedding day... and the Walter F. Carews of Middlebelt road are hosting a buffet supper to the bridal parties and their families in the late afternoon, with great informality.

HOSTESSES for the "first"... a miscellaneous shower... at the Kenwood home of Mrs. Emil Kontz and Mrs. Raymond Smith.

An evening linen shower at the Jackson residence on Watkins street was co-hosted by Mrs. Donald Goldsmith and Mrs. Howard Reid.

Collaborating on a 11:30 a.m. brunch, bedroom-linen shower were Mrs. Earl Bramblett, Mrs. Norman Ellis and Mrs. George Jacoby at the former's home on Lone Pine road.

A supper at Mrs. Martin Rummells on Lyvonbush, followed by a bathroom shower was given by Maribel Rummell (who was to have been a bridesmaid, but signed a contract to teach in California and had to report at a date earlier than Ray's wedding) along with her mother. This is a real reunion of a group of long standing pals who have grown up in Birmingham together.

Saturday evening a "His and Her" party was given jointly by Nancy Carlisle and Norman Boyea at Nan's home on Oakhill drive... and it was a surprise to Don Beaudry, the prospective groom.

Jaycees Plan for Fall

Mrs. James Martin (center) president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Women's Auxiliary of Birmingham served cool refreshing drinks to Mrs. Robert E. Reason, treasurer and Mrs. Allan Keogh, (right) board member, in her home on Lake Park.

Threesome met to discuss arrangements for the forthcoming luncheon and fashion show to be given by the Jaycees at Forest Lake Country club Nov. 13. Fashions will be by Davidsons.

Another Newlywed Neelands Kingsley At Mackinac Island 'First'

Elizabeth Jane Neelands wore a floor length gown of swiss white organza for her August marriage to Arthur George Epker, Jr. in the Bethany Methodist church.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. W. H. Woodell Neelands of Chicago, and the Arthur G. Epkers of Fairway drive, Birmingham.

Along with being the world's first in having a complete stereophonic installation, Kingsley Inn opened its fashion production at noon yesterday with one of the most outstanding young designers of the day—SCASSI. This year he has won the coveted "Whinnie"—the City Fashion Critics award for his design achievement in design in America as well as the NBC "Today" award for "Most Promising Designer of the Year".

Pre-Wedding Entertainment

Thursday, Sept. 6 has been chosen by Joyce Elaine Rose as the date of her marriage to William F. Brennan, Jr. It will take place at Duane Scotts College. Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rose of Rock Creek drive, Southfield township, and Bill's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Brennan of Vista Vista Estates, Farmington.

Still in his middle twenties, yet amazingly of fashion with a flair that spills over into his designs, he has, in a short space of time, established an impressively growing business proudly presented throughout the country. He masterminds his whole operation from the first stroke of the designer's pen to the last detail of production and merchandising.

Bill's sister, Joyce, will be maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Garlin Wood, Bernice Lyon, Patricia Schaefer and Mrs. David Roach. Karen Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Rose will be flower girl and Terrance Brennan, brother of the bridegroom-elect will be ring bearer.

SCASSI is Canadian by birth and studied designing there and in Paris. While he attacks fashion with an intense seriousness, there is always a note of youth and gaiety about his clothes. His conceptions of color are fantastic, his use of fabric always stimulating and unusual, his sense of drama unequalled and his sense of quality absolute.

Timothy Carroll will serve as best man and ushers will be Michael Callahan, James Delaney, John Nelson and Earl Hess, of Louisville.

Though his designs, ranging through coats, suits and beautifully cut day dresses to the most elegant cocktail and evening dresses, are breath-takingly original within the bounds of good taste, always female, always alluring, never based on a current trend followed by the masses.

A reception for 300 guests will follow at the Detroit Golf club.

There is, in every design, a one-of-a-kind look, a look of distinction, designed individually for THE woman who will wear it for a long time to come.

AMONG PARTIES given for Joyce was the luncheon and linen shower by Mrs. Raymond North. Mrs. George Genthe will be hostess at a gadget shower at the Detroit Book club today and Mrs. Cleo Welling plans a kitchen shower at the Groove Pointe Yacht club, Wednesday, Aug. 27. The following night Mrs. Louis Rose, Joyce's aunt, and the Palmer Roses will entertain for the couple at a buffet dinner and cocktails at the former's home on Wesley drive.

AS SCASSI'S "I try to design pretty clothes, to make a woman beautiful. Fashion means little to me now. It must define, enhance and compliment the personality of the wearer".

Patricia Schaefer will give the spinster dinner at the Rosch home on Stoeppel avenue, Sept. 2 and that evening Mr. Carroll will be host at the bachelor dinner at his home in Farmington. Bill's parents will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner at Oakland Hills Country club Thursday, Sept. 4.

AS SCASSI'S "I try to design pretty clothes, to make a woman beautiful. Fashion means little to me now. It must define, enhance and compliment the personality of the wearer".

The couple plan a fall wedding.

Doggie Digs Dostoiievsky

While waiting for the AAUW book sale pick-up person to come along, Mike thought he'd relax during "dog days" and catch upon a little light reading. The golden retriever, who will be six years old next week, belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Leininger, 32442 Sheridan drive, Westwood. If this reminds you, the AAUW is still looking for books for its annual sale to be held Oct. 27 through Oct. 31. If you have books to be picked, the contact is Mrs. Kenneth J. Kesler, 1027 Suffield, Birmingham.
