

Local Apaches Run Wild, Down Lunch, Defeat Dads

A barbecue luncheon was held recently for the Apaches, a minor league team of the Babe Ruth club, at the home of manager Dave Donnelly, 1627 Derby road, and with the assistance of co-managers Bill Herter and Roy Homberger.

The team, ages 13 to 15, were first in the farm league this year. Members include Captain Tim Herter, Don Daniels, Dick Wright, Bill Lamet, Larry Homberger and Bob Felie.

Other members of the team are Hank Abstin, Bill Thygerson, Dave Harvie, Bill Hicks, Larry McKenny, Tom Cook, Bob Potter and John Holland.

The team presented Donnelly with a trophy and the co-managers with gifts after the luncheon and before advancing to the diamond to play "Kids vs Dads"—"Kids" won—naturally.

A welcomed newcomer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Ross, 981 Brooklawn road, is Scott Edwards, born Aug. 4.

Scott was greeted at home by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas S. and maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. Edward Kindig of South Bend, Ind. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ross of Oshkosh, Wis.

A recent houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, 1544 Witherbee road, were Mrs. Morgan's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Kaufman and sons, Scott, Mark and Jeff, from Washington, D.C.

Pam and Jimmy Morgan entertained their cousins.

The Leo Cases of Witherbee road returned recently from a one week vacation with their children, Roger, Marcia and Beth, at the Woodwing Lodge at Harbor Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fowler and their five children of Charwood were also guests there.

The families enjoyed swimming and a trip to the Mackinac bridge and a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Butzler, also of this area.

The St. Jane de Chantal guild of Holy Name church held a successful bake sale Wednesday under the direction of Mrs. Richard Monley.

Mrs. Donald Nancy of Norwich road, Mrs. Robert Gorman of Brooklawn road and Mrs. Robert Smith of Brooklawn road used their homes as the central selling places.

Mrs. Paul Nelson, 958 Brooklawn road, recently entertained her monthly bridge club.

Present were Mrs. William Vocht, Mrs. Robert Sims, Mrs. Ford Banes, Mrs. Don Miner, Mrs. Lee Case, Mrs. James Trew and Mrs. William Dye.

Parents are famous for summer barbecues for their friends, so Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte of Witherbee road felt four-year-old Tommy should have one of his own.

Enjoying the cook-out were Mary Lee and Peggy Ross, Bobby Collawn, Bobby Winfield, Robbie Whitehead, Terry Ricardo, Peggy Penninger, Bobby Reed, Mary Jo Hibbert, Stevie Craig and Debbie Dattler. Younger sister, Nancy, watched the gathering.

After a delicious meal and some time to romp around the yard chasing balloons, the group was taken to the park to swing and slide.

A steak barbecue was slated Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Whitehead, 858 Norwich, for Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Ray McPartlin.

After dinner, the couples went to the recreation room for some ping pong, a round of singing at the piano player and a game of cards.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ward, Jr., 1859 Witherbee road, Troyton or, proudly announce the birth of their first son, John Lamon Ward III, born Aug. 4 at St. Joseph hospital and weighing 8 lbs. 6 oz.

Jackie was greeted at home by his 17-month-old sister, Michele, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. McElroy of Detroit and paternal grandparents,
