Ed Hopper Family Returns From Two Weeks in West

Home again after touring the west for two weeks are the Edward Hoppers and children, Steven and Jane, of Meadowlane drive.

One of their first stops was the Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico, where they spent a day sight-seeing. El Paso, Tex. was another stop before viewing the magnificent Grand Canyon. At Bryce Canyon the Hoppers mounted horses and took a seven-hour trip through the scenic countryside. Rocky Mountain National Park in Colorado was another sight that will long be remembered.

The Donald Richardsons of Pine Hill drive have returned home after spending a month on the west coast. Mrs. Richardson and children, Patrick and Donna, flew to San Francisco two weeks ahead of Richardson. While there they stayed with the Shirley Walkers of Sleepy Hollow, parents of Mrs. Richardson.

The Richard Smiths of North Adams road are home after a trip to the east. Ossipee, N. H., was one of their first stops, where they visited Mrs. William Smith, Smith's mother.

They traveled to Lake George in the Adirondack mountains, cruised to Ticonderoga, visited Frontland, Maryland, U. S. A., and the historic Fort William Henry.

The Paul Kerevics and son, David, of Meadowlane drive spent 10 days at a cottage near Cadillac, because of good weather they stayed close to the cottage, enjoying the beach, swimming and boating.

The Sherrill Simons and sons, Bob and Chuck, of Bretby drive spent a week recently at the Paradise Dude Ranch at Woodland Park, Colo. They found the week a busy one with horseback riding, pack trips, swimming and dancing every night.

Ten days were spent at Walloon lake near Petoskey by the Donald Youngs of Bretby drive and Mrs. Young's parents, the Frank Clinks of Sarasota, Fla.

Greeting them at the cottage were Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Brown of Charing Cross road, relatives of Mrs. Young. The group enjoyed boating, water skiing, golfing and swimming. They toured Mackinac Island on one of their side trips. Waiting at home for their parents and grandparents, who will stay on for a visit, were the four
