PURITAN ROAD

Taste and skill is the architecture. An eminent builder has thoughtfully designed these Colonials near Quarten School for just two lucky families to enjoy, in either house.

A richly paneled activities room with a bar and sink that is built into the wall. This delightful room is perfect for both small fry or adult parties. It is entered on the one side from the living room, through sliding doors in order to either divorce the two rooms or unify into a single entertaining area. The living room focal point is a fireplace of imported Italian marble.

The kitchen, entered on the bar side of the activities room, is equipped with a Thermador oven and range, complete with a deluxe hood and fan. Both an especially large breakfast nook and the full dining room efficiently adjoin the kitchen.

A rare convenience is the utility room on the first floor, with a large all-purpose closet, and nearby lav.

Privacy of four bedrooms on the second floor, served by two spacious baths. No wardrobe or storage problems in the double-size closets.

You will find satisfaction in the character of either one of these custom, new Colonials.

Puritan Road $49,500. Suffield Road $48,500.

SUFFIELD ROAD

Less than $3000 down. This Cape Cod offers you a complete way of living within your means.

From W. Lincoln Avenue walk to school or uptown to the stores. This is a different interior of early American motif. An attractive recreation room is decorated with child-proof materials. Outdoors the children play protected in the fenced yard. 3 bedrooms, incinerator, garage with storage space, and full basement complete the home.

The success of this home is the family room which features brick and a built-in grille to take on an impromptu party at a moments notice.

The kitchen is planned with an eating area. Dining el, living room with a fireplace, and hall are carpeted. An outdoor living area is created on the patio. Both bedrooms are a good size; in fact the master bedroom can easily accommodate a double suite.

This is a neighborhood you will like to live in, near Derby and Pembroke schools. $19,500.
