Get-Acquainted Tea Honors Skidmore Students

Skidmore students gathered for a tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George W. McCormick, Jr., 1830 Quanton, to get acquainted with new students and discuss their summer activities.

Among those present were Lynn Orism, a Skidmore representative at Hudson's Northland college shop and Susan Tabor, a drama major, who put in a summer at the Red Barn. Betty Blanchard carried on a lively conversation about her mountain climbing in British Columbia, as well as Cynthia Adams, who was on the riding staff at Sequoyia, in Abingdon, Va. Ellen VanDusen taught at the Bloomingdale Art association and Gwen Gallo, an art major, was busy taking reservations for the undergraduates' picnic at Orchard Lake next month.

Newlyweds To Reside In Florida

Joan Barbara Haas wore a traditional silk taffeta gown for her marriage to Richard Alan Kappler Saturday evening in the Franklin Community Church, Lathrup. The Rev. John Rose performed the candlelight ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride's gown featured a lace bodice, round neckline and long tapered sleeves. A cap of lace and pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a Bible covered with orchids and stephanotis.

PARENTS of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Otto Haas of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Kappler of Pon Valley road, Bloomfield Hills. Maid of honor was Barbara Radeneer and bridesmaids were Katherine Heimbecker, Carol Kappler, Jill Everson, Mary Groichs and flower girl, Charlene Calahan.

Attendees were given in white dotted Swiss ballerina gowns over pastel taffeta with matching beaded ties. They carried baskets of pastel flowers.

DONALD FISHER stood as best man. Seating the guests were Ray Schumaker, Larry Hodin, Tom Mason, William Haas and ring bearer, William Kappler.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Haas chose an aqua silk organza gown with matching accessories. Mother of the groom selected a rose silk lace dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had white orchids.

THE NEWLYWEDS are honeymooning in Northern Michigan and will motor to Miami, Fla. where they will attend Miami university.
