

Attendants Gowned In Turquoise Silk

Heleen Joanne Jesson wore a swiss embroidered organza gown for her marriage to John Milton Knight Rogers Saturday evening at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Lester Doby officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stanley P. Jesson of 5000 Lake drive, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rogers of Orchard Lake.

THE BRIDE'S organza gown featured a V-necked bodice, short sleeves and fitted bodice coming to a point in the front over a bouffant skirt which fell in soft tiers of organza into a chapel train.

A matching shell cap secured her fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a colonial cascade of white glamoias and sweetheart roses.

SUZANNE ALINE Jesson was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rogers, Denise Robins, Debra B. Walsh, Mary Ellen Benjamin and Mrs. Stanley R. Jesson.

Attendants were gowned alike in deep turquoise silk organza over taffeta with very full skirts. They carried white glamoias and pale pink sweetheart roses.

HOWARD ROGERS stood as best man. Seating by guest was Robin Morton, Lee Bertling, Ronald Eckert, Alan F. Betts, James Furell, Dr. Oscar Link and Stanley R. Jesson.

Mother of the bride chose an organza selected a blue chiffon with aqua chiffon sheath over taffeta matching accessories. Mrs. Rogers wore corsages of amber roses.

Pearl Lace Juliet Cap Accents Bridal Attire

The Lutheran Church of the Redeemer was the scene of the ceremony uniting in marriage Carole Lee Olsen and Robert Wayne Lenski, Saturday at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Theodore Wiggazer, Jr., performed the rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin Olsen of Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of the Paul Ernest Lenski of Albion.

WEARING an original gown of white chantilly lace, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Tiny seed pearls and sequins embroidered the neckline and long sleeves of her gown which had a ball-shaped skirt extending into a chapel train.

A pearl encrusted lace Juliet cap held in place her veil of white silk illusion. Her flowers were stephanotis, white orchids and ivy in a cascade arrangement.

THE BRIDAL attendants, Mrs. John Van Alstyne Hill, matron of honor and bridesmaid, Mrs. Joseph Jozzo, Judith Smith and Lynn Brien, were gowned alike in white silk organza and chantilly lace ballera dresses. They wore picture hats of organza and carried cascades of mums tinted in shades of blue and trailing ivy.

An afternoon gown of white silk organza and chantilly lace with matching accessories and a small petal hat were worn by the bride's mother and her flowers were lavender orchids. Mrs. Lenski's gown was self embroidered with green with which she wore white accessories and lily corsage.

MRS. ROBERT LENSKI

JOSEPH HARRIG was best man and ushers were Richard Olsen, Jr., Robert Rogers and Albert Firth. A reception followed at Detroit Golf club. The newlyweds are honeymooning in Mackinac Island.

William Heaton's Return From Six Weeks In Europe

The William Heaton of Anslow lane have returned home after six weeks in Europe. Bidding them bon voyage in New York on June 27 were the Roger Blackwoods of Charnwood drive. Accompanying the Heaton on the trip were Mrs. Heaton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Johnson, Sr., of Flint.

Their first stop was in London, where they spent four days sight-seeing. Their tours included Buckingham Palace and the changing of the guards. The Heaton were impressed with the entertaining "Goldstream Guard Band, complete with bagpipes, at Hampton Court in front of the brightly lit palace.

Six days were spent touring the southern part of England before flying on Amsterdam for the Brussels World Fair was unashere three day stop on their itinerary.

They spent a day in Cologne, before taking a memorable Rhine River trip to Weisbaden. The four hour trip was a water tour of the many famous castles. The Johnsons and Heaton parted for two days with the Johnsons visiting in Munich, while the Heaton visited friends, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Biskop in Stuttgart, Germany.

They met again in Lucerne, Switzerland, where their honeymoon gave them the magnificent view of the Alps. Interlochen was another highlight of the trip. Here they traveled through the Rhone Glacier via an ice tunnel. They spent 10 days in Paris before returning to the chateau country.

Patiently waiting at home for their return were the Heaton's children, Lucinda, Whiting and Alice.

Celebrating the return of the William Heaton, members of the Charnwood area hosted a progressive dinner on Friday, Aug. 15.

Hosting a cocktail hour at their North Adams road home were the Roland Diamers. The scene changed to the Sherill Simpsons of Bretby drive, where the main course was served. Then on to the David DeWitts for dessert and the Heaton home to view the treasures they purchased abroad.

The group then returned to the DeWitts pool for a "splashing good time." Others at the gathering were, the William Potts, the William Dewey, the Roger Blackwoods and their guests the Fred Blackwoods of Grand Rapids.

The Walter Seibels of Walnut Hill drive and their summer house-guests, the Paul Kemps of Phoenix, Ariz., returned recently from a trip through Michigan and the upper peninsula.

They stopped along Lake Michigan, viewed the locks at the Soo and drove on the Mackinac bridge. They also saw Porcupine, the Tahquamenon Falls.

The Kemps are avid semi-precious stone collectors and were intrigued with the agate beaches and little shops along Lake Superior. They cut and polish these stones and set them into the silver jewelry. They are referred to by many as "rock hounds."

The Kemps will be residing in Birmingham for the next couple of years while Kemp studies prints and works in oils with art instructor here. Mrs. Kemp will teach fifth grade at Wing Lake school in Bloomfield this fall. She formerly lived in Michigan and is a sister of Mrs. Seibels.

The Lynn Hudlers and son, Steve, of Batterman Hill drive spent a week's vacation at a cottage on Manistee Lake near Kalkaska. They fished, swam, boated, and viewed the Mackinac bridge and Soo locks.

The Maurice Meads of Pine Hill drive spent the weekend with the Hudlers before returning home.

Home again after a month touring the west are the Herman Coymans and daughter Cynthia, of Meadowlane drive.

They motored to Omaha, Neb., where they boarded a train for Los Angeles. While in L. A. they were houseguests of the Howard Kipsachs, relatives of Coymans. They saw Disneyland and Marineland and stayed a few days in North Hollywood visiting relatives, the Sam Coymans.

In Las Vegas they headquarters at the Stardust, and found the "glitter" of the city, the Milton Berle show and the George Gobel show most entertaining.

The George Malys of Upton road spent last week at Manitowish. Visiting Malys parents, the Steven Malys.

Their daughter, Gail, joined a group of friends at Alpaus for a week of swimming and boating. The girls, all student nurses at Mercy college, included Mary Ann Coe of Bay City, Grace Lopez of Adrian, Rosemary Hanover and Elaine Ptas of Detroit.

Last weekend Gail went on to Wisconsin to visit her grandparents before bringing them back to Birmingham for a visit.

Soon Greg Cowman, son of the Thayer Cowmans of Lunenburg drive, will need a larger room to house all the ribbons he has been winning at the swimming meets in and around Detroit.

Greg is 10 years old and is on the Red Run varsity swimming team. July 31 he won blue ribbon in the meet against Lockmoor Country club held at Red Run. Aug. 10 he won another blue ribbon at the Western Golf and Country club.

Greg took part in the second annual Water Wonderland meet at Brennan pool in Detroit and was awarded a gold cup trophy for second place, boys free style, 50 meters. Forty other boys throughout the U. S. participated in the meet held the weekend of Aug. 16. Last Sunday Greg won two medals for his growing collection at Western Golf and Country club.

A dessert coffee was hosted by Mrs. Ira Wilson of Fox Run an afternoon on Friday, The 23 gathering were, the William Potts, the William Dewey, the Roger Blackwoods and their guests the Fred Blackwoods of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. George Jones and son Craig, of Dowling road entertained Craig's neighborhood friends and their mothers Aug. 13 at an ice cream social.

The 33 children were served ice cream, cake and lemonade by Craig before they joined in the fun of flying airplane party favors. The patio was then left for the mothers to enjoy.

On Sunday evening the George Jones entertained friends at a barbecue supper on the patio. Jones cooked his specially, barbecued spare ribs. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLennan of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hickey of Birmingham.

The couple was honored at a garden party Sunday afternoon at the Kordenbrook home attended by 60 guests.

Heather Hutchins Weds William J. Whitcroft

Heather Ann Hutchins and William John Whitcroft repeated their vows Saturday afternoon in Plymouth Congregational church, Lansing. The Rev. Phillip Reikow performed the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the newweds are Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchins of East Lansing and Mrs. and Mr. Clarence Whitcroft of Grandfield court, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE WORE a formal gown of candlelight peau de soie featuring a molded bodice veiled in alencon lace. The bouffant princess paneled skirt accented with alencon lace applique swept into a wide train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a small Juliet lace cap with seed pearls. She carried white roses and stephanotis.

CYNTHIA JANE Hutchins was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. David Craig, Suzanne Mayhew, Suzanne Bailey and Penelope Reynolds.

Attendants were gowned in powder blue sheath dresses of pure silk organza with purple head-dresses. They carried lavender gladioli.

FREDERICK JAMES Whitcroft was his brother's best man. Ushers were Gaylord Gann, Benno Berni, Raymond Babcock and Richard Lamb.

Mrs. Hutchins chose a cocktail length gown of mauve rose peau de soie trimmed in lace. The groom's mother selected a gown of pale blue peau de soie trimmed with a ribbon motif and pearls. Both mothers pinned roses to their purses.

FOLLOWING a buffet supper at the home of the bride's parents, the newweds left for their honeymoon to Cape Cod.
