

Newlyweds Honeymoon To Northern Michigan

Janet Rae Steele wore a silk organza gown with rosepointe lace accented with seed pearls when she entered the First Presbyterian church, Saturday, to become Mrs. Gilbert Freeman.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Earle Steele of N. Adams road, Birmingham, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeman of Pasadena, Calif.

HER GOWN featured a scooped neckline and tiny shoulderette sleeves and matching sheer gowns. A cap of rosepointe lace held in place her fingertip veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet consisted of white orchids and stephanotis.

RICHARD NEIL Barron was asked to be best man. Serving the guests were Dean Billeau and Fred Suppnick.

Mother of the bride chose a wild honey rosepointe lace dress with blue accessories. Mrs. Freeman selected a chiffon dress with matching accessories.

FOLLOWING the ceremony, a stand-up buffet was at Devon Gables. The new Mrs. Freeman changed to a print suit to start her trip to Northern Michigan.

Sentiment, Tradition Prevailed at Wedding

Sentiment prevailed at the Redford-Pearson wedding at 4:30 p.m. yesterday in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Ann Arbor.

Ellen Elizabeth Pearson wore her mother's princess style gown of ivory lace for her marriage to Nicholas Primore Redfield of Bloomfield Hills. It was fashioned with long sleeves and train and her full length veil with coronet of heirloom lace has been worn by four generations of the bride's family. She carried gardenias and stephanotis.

THE BRIDE'S father, the Rev. Lawrence W. Pearson, rector of All Soul's Episcopal church in San Diego, Calif., and former assistant rector at Christ Church Cranbrook, officiated at her wedding. MacPherson Boyning of Lansing, Godfather of the bride, gave her in marriage.

Still following family tradition, the garden reception was at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Joseph H. Hayden. Four generations of her family have had their wedding receptions at the family home, 1500 Hill street, Ann Arbor.

RUTH HALL of West Palm Beach, Fla., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor in yellow embroidered nylon over taffeta with matching taffeta headband.

Bridesmaids in identical frocks of blue were Ellen's sisters, Jennifer, Mary and Elizabeth Pearson, all of San Diego. They carried colonial nosegays.

SONS of Mrs. Max Fruhauf and the late Harold Redfield, William Redfield was his brother's best man. Another brother and two step-brothers, Michael H. Redfield, Anthony Bramley Fruhauf and Emis A. Fruhauf, along with Donald K. Alexander, James C. Saybe and Dwight V. Galloway were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lawrence W. Pearson wore turquoise lace and the groom's mother chose pale blue lace. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Hayden, was in gray lace over taffeta, and all dresses were of street length.

Graefield-Derby Roger Clearys Humming "California Here We Come"

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Horn, 1900 Witherbee, opened their home to neighbors at a farewell gathering for Mr. and Mrs. Roger Cleary, who are moving to Hollywood.

The Clearys are original residents in Troyton Manor and lived at 1810 Witherbee.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bud Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guillani, Mr. and Mrs. James Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Haugecock, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Otto, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mosley, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Case, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bens, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hardig.

Also included in the evening's festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rimpson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gologly, Mr. and Mrs. Al Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gabert, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Talbot.

The group presented the Clearys with a gift for their new home.

Just returned from a vacation at Georgian Bay are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welch and children Sara, Betsy and twins, Billy and Bobby, of 875 Brooklawn road.

Along with the Welch's were neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Terry, of Brooklawn road and children, Timmy and Sara.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gologly, 1914 Witherbee, and children, Mary, Hugh, Jr. and Debbie, returned recently from a two-week vacation in the foothills of the Ozarks. They spent most of their holiday learning how to water ski.

They returned just in time for Mary to join her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sparks, 1684 Witherbee, when they celebrated their son Cliff's fourth birthday.

Cliff's playmates, who helped him celebrate, donned Mardi Gras masks and festive hats before being seated at a gaily decorated table centered with a Teddy Bear cake.

Guests for the occasion were Kaye Anderson, Kathy Bower, Ricky Hehn, Ann Kaufman, David Mahan, Jeffie Dennis and Cliff's sister Christine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kaufman, 1094 Witherbee, celebrated their daughter Mary Katherine's second birthday at a family gathering.

983 Brooklawn road, and son, Rob, spent their vacation this year traveling through New York.

In Schenectady, they were hosts-guests of Mrs. Benson's parents Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Elliott. From there they traveled to Lake George where they shared a cottage with Mrs. Benson's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leadley.

Upon their return they had a small birthday celebration for Rob's third birthday. Guests included Betsy and Sara Welch, Paul, Maria and Bruce Chew and Gordon Sims.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ekberg, 918 Brooklawn road, and children Jan, Jim and Jo, recently spent two weeks at a cottage in Union Lake.

During their stay they entertained neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lippard, 870 Brooklawn road, and their children Mary, Sandy and Brian.

The Garth Hawley's of Brooklawn road returned recently from a vacation spent in northern Michigan.

The Hawley children, Dennis, John Paul, twins Cindy and Cathy and baby Ward, enjoyed swimming in Mullet Lake.

Side trips were taken to Mackinac Island, Cheboygan and Petoskey, where they were the house-guests of Lila Steinmetz. While on the island, the children enjoyed driving a horse and buggy. It was the first time they had seen the new bridge.

Just returned from a weekend at Cherry Cove on Sutton's Bay are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler, 881 Brooklawn road. Also along for the weekend fun were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gara and their four children.
