

Humphreys Honeymoon In Canadian Rockies

A floor length white silk taffeta gown with sabrina neckline, framed with delicate lace, was worn by Nancy Buckmaster for her marriage to Whitten Seaver Humphreys. The Rev. Lester L. Dobyns officiated at the afternoon ceremony in Christ Church Crimbroy.

Nancy wore a mantle of silk illusion applied in matching lace and carried a cascade of white rose buds with ivy. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hersh Pretz, of Williamsburg road, Bloomfield Village, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stark Newell Humphreys of Naperville, Ill.

POWDER BLUE chifon with a fitted bodice over matching taffeta was worn by maid of honor Suzanne Christiana Pretz. In identical frocks were bridesmaids Louise Annetta Bost, Barbara Ann Osterkirch, Ann Harris Willett and Heather Ann Humphreys. They carried rubrum lilies and ivy. Richard Owens was best man and seating the guests were Alan B. Buckmaster, C. Roger Buckmaster and Robert R. Wolf with Stark Lawrence Humphreys as junior usher.

FOR HER daughter's wedding and reception, following at Birmingham Country club, Mrs. Pretz wore a Dior blue lace with matching shoes and tiny hat of blue feathers.

Mrs. Humphreys chose a silk taffeta gown in a grayed plum shade. Both mothers had ebullient orchids. To start her wedding trip to Emerald Lake (Chateau in the Canadian Rockies), the new Mrs. Humphreys donned a navy silk ensemble with matching accessories and white orchid. Upon return the couple will live in Baltimore, Md.

Have You Met . . .
The residents of 1407 Wrenwood drive? Mr. and Mrs. George Fichtel and their two children, moved from Saginaw on June 6. George is a management consultant for Ernst & Ernst.

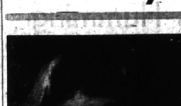

To Make Home in Kalamazoo
A princess style gown of rosepoint chantilly lace was worn by Carole Sue Sherman for her marriage to Harold Eugene Allen, Saturday.

First Methodist church in Royal Oak. Dr. Paul Durham performed the ceremony in the presence of 200 guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherman of Randolph road. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Clifton Allen of Royal Oak and the late Mr. Allen.

THE BRIDE'S gown featured a scalloped neckline outlined in tiny seed pearls, long pointed sleeve, fitted bodice and a plumed skirt of peau de soie which fell into a train of chapel length. Her flowers were white gladiolas and stephanotis with trailing ivy in cascade shape with detachable corsage of white gladiolas. Gail Sherman was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Sharron Schultz, Suzanne DeHart and Gloria Dawkins. They wore melon taffeta gowns with matching headpieces. They carried melon colored gladiolas.

JAMES ALLEN was his brother's

Society

Home Reception Follows Wedding In Grosse Pointe
Mary Ann Melnik and Willie Hill Stephens, Jr., pledged vows of marriage at St. Paul's church on Lakeshore, Grosse Pointe, Saturday morning, followed by a small reception at the home of her parents.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Francis Melnik of Moran road, Grosse Pointe, and her husband's parents are the Willie Hill Stephens of North Adams, Birmingham.

Ann's waist-length white organza gown was accented by an heirloom applied rose point veil. She carried a bouquet of ivy, stephanotis and baby mums.

ATTENDANTS: Peggy Melnik and Mrs. James M. Lamoreux, sister of the groom, wore waist-length white organza dresses trimmed in pink with chaparral and bouquets of ivy and pink baby mums. Clement J. Cleveland, best man. Ushers included Charles W. Mercer, James M. Lamoreux and Paul John Melnik.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Melnik wore a blue print dress

NEWLYWEDS motoring to Carolina
First Methodist church was the scene last Thursday for the marriage of Mary Elizabeth Grubb and Arthur Brewster Fairbanks. Dr. Arnold Runkel performed the 4:30 o'clock ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Grubb of Elizabethtown, Pa., and Mr. Arthur Fairbanks of Detroit and Mrs. Julia Fairbanks of Townsend street, Birmingham.

FOR HER WEDDING, Mary wore a white ballerina chantilly lace over satin gown with long pointed sleeves, sabrina neckline and fitted bodice. A floral headband secured her shoulder length veil of silk illusion. A bouquet of white roses and stephanotis completed the bridal picture.

Mrs. John Wanamaker, maid of honor, wore a champagne chiffon ballerina length dress and carried a bouquet of hibbard roses.

ANDREW FAIRBANKS stood as best man for his brother. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Grubb chose a navy net and silk dress with white accessories and corsage of swordheart roses. Mother of the groom selected a navy eyelet dress with a corsage of white gardenias.

A RECEPTION followed at Northwood Inn. The Fairbanks are motoring to North Carolina for their honeymoon and upon return will reside in the Birmingham area. The new Fairbanks is a teacher at Barnum.

Home Reception Follows Wedding In Grosse Pointe

Mary Ann Melnik and Willie Hill Stephens, Jr., pledged vows of marriage at St. Paul's church on Lakeshore, Grosse Pointe, Saturday morning, followed by a small reception at the home of her parents.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Francis Melnik of Moran road, Grosse Pointe, and her husband's parents are the Willie Hill Stephens of North Adams, Birmingham.

Ann's waist-length white organza gown was accented by an heirloom applied rose point veil. She carried a bouquet of ivy, stephanotis and baby mums.

ATTENDANTS: Peggy Melnik and Mrs. James M. Lamoreux, sister of the groom, wore waist-length white organza dresses trimmed in pink with chaparral and bouquets of ivy and pink baby mums. Clement J. Cleveland, best man. Ushers included Charles W. Mercer, James M. Lamoreux and Paul John Melnik.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Melnik wore a blue print dress

MRS. WILLIE H. STEPHENS, JR. and white flowered hat. Mrs. Stephens wore a turquoise organza gown and small white hat. After a trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will live in Ann Arbor.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Sept. 2 Signup Set For Crafts Series

Enrollment will begin Sept. 2 for the fall series of the Birmingham Community House craft and hobby classes and will continue until sections are filled. Featuring courses in 13 categories, the adult education program will begin the week of Sept. 15, supplemented by special youth and senior activities. Art classes in the adult program include creative pottery, design, interior decorating, painting, sculpture and silver. Also offered are sewing, millinery, flower arrangement, dancing, bridge, photography and first aid sections. Youth painting and drawing classes and senior activities for men, women and mixed groups rounded out the program. Details on any of the activities and class registration information may be obtained at the Community House office.

To Owners of PICKERING HI FI Equipment
New Pickering Stereo Cartridge Now Available only $29.95
BIRMINGHAM ELECTRONICS
247 W. MAPLE MI 6-8440

Open Friday Evenings 7:30-9:30
RB Fashion leaders for 30 years
142 W. MAPLE — BIRMINGHAM
Branches in Royal Oak—Ferndale—Mt. Clemens fashion's ravishing new shapes . . . at a pittance price!

Jerry Golden
"Viva Italia"
Slim houson, for a dress of effortless ease. Italian rib wool knit in olive green, Rialto red, Vicuna, Bravado blue. 8-18.
$17.98
"Special Edition"
Late-day fashion excitement in black wool jersey, with a curled-under taffeta flounce. Pictured in Harper's Bazaar, 8-18.
$17.98

top fashion . . . everywhere you go
ROVERCOAT
by Whitey's Shop
$17.95
One coat, this coat . . . fashion for town or country, equally smart over slacks or skirts. Bulky cotton knit collar converts to snug hood, matching knit welt trims pockets, forms sleeve wristers. Water-repellent poplin with Thermotag quilt lining. Beige, blue, white, walnut. 10 to 20.

ELLIOTT
UPHOLSTERING
Creators of Fine Living Room Furniture
VISIT OUR NEW SHOWROOM
TABLES — LAMPS — CARPETS
Open Evenings by Appointment ELLIOTT FURNITURE
585-5106 DIXIE HWY. WATERFORD — OR 3-1225

Army Trainee's Unit Faces German Duty
FORT RILEY, Kan. — A Birmingham high school alumni and former employe of Birmingham Ambulance Co. is taking basic training at Fort Riley's first infantry division. James E. McMahan, Madison Heights, will go to Germany with his division this winter to replace units of the 24th infantry division. He recently won the sergeant's badge in qualifying with the M-1 rifle.

each $5.00
Mortimer's
MEN'S STYLE CENTER
123 W. Maple

Sherman's Back To School Savings !!

PIED PIPER
• OXFORDS
• SADDLES
• STRAPS
$6.99 and $7.99
Formerly $8.50 and $9.50
SIZES 5 to 8
12 1/2 to 12
all widths
Sherman's
Formerly Williams' Boot Shop
115 W. Maple

GERBERICH
Shoes For Boys!
SIZES 12 1/4 to 8
3 1/2 to 8
6 1/2 to 12
$6.99
ACCURATE FITTING
OPEN FRIDAY TILL 9 P.M.