Beckers, Suoys Hold Beef Party Extravaganza

Once again the Judd Decker's and Hugh Suoys' Brooklawn road A five piece band, the Meltones, have staged a party extravaganza. The party, which is an annual affair originated last summer when Judd Decker and Hugh Suoys jointly revealed a hidden desire to roast a suckling pig. They set out to dig a 3 feet by 4 feet pit at the end of their adjacent lot. The affair was such a success that the pig was preserved for future use.

THIS YEAR THE party was held on a much larger scale. Tables were set up cabaret style with lanterns lighting up the two yards. A five piece band, the Meltones, supplied music for dancing. Essentials for the dinner were 85 pounds of roast prime ribs of beef and huge kettles containing a mixture of fresh garden vegetables. These were seasoned by the gourmet touch of Mrs. Decker and Mrs. Suoy.

Sixty neighbors participated in the event. The evening was concluded an old-fashioned bonfire was started. Everyone gathered around and they sang their favorite songs.
