Cranbrook Village Social Briefs

Beverly and Jack Bryan celebrated their birthdays jointly today with one huge party at their home on Rock Creek drive. Some 16 neighborhood children attended. Highlight of the party was the showing of colored slides taken by the Bryans on their recent trip out west, where they stayed at an Indian Reservation in San Carlos, Ariz.

The entire theme of the party was many interesting scenes viewed on the trip. Favors included key chains with views of the San Francisco Cable Cars and several Indian motifs.

The ladies of Cranbrook Village in St. Christopher's Guild at St. Bede's church are preparing for their bake sale to be given before and after all Masses on Aug. 15. They will offer a variety of homemade cakes, pies and cookies.

Nipponese, If You Please

"SAYONARA," says Janet Forbush, seven-year-old playmate of Anne Meyer, 375 Lake Park, as the two play dress-up Japanese and entire garden was decorated with gaily lit Japanese lanterns.

Deborah Angove celebrated her seventh birthday Aug. 1 with an outdoor party, where the children played games and enjoyed the cake and all the trimmings.

The John Tates who recently purchased the former Graveline home on San Jose have had as guests Mrs. Tatia sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Wegener and children; Randy, Diane and Stuart. The families enjoyed a visit to Detroit's Rooster Tail restaurant and celebrated Carolyn Tate's sixth birthday with a family barbecue.

Marie Ellen Goddard recently returned from a two-week vacation in Port Austin where she visited Diane Hulan, a classmate at Mercy College. They spent time roller skating, attending movies and swimming.

Baptisms at St. Bede's church July 27 included Michael James Jack, son of Edward and Joyce Laughlin, Paul Mrowczynski, Butch Trevallian, Richard Little, Don Boyle, Robert Angove, Bill Taylor, John Flemming, Lyman York and Larry Gardner. The Cleary boys were away on vacation.

Over at the L. P. Hourihan home on Rockham boulevard Hourihan entertained his team, the Red Sox, with a chicken barbecue and games. The boys were delighted with the Little League baseball cake and the photo of the team presented to each boy.

A farewell luncheon was given July 30 by Mrs. Frank York for Mrs. Richard Walter. When the Walters move to Messina, N.Y. the end of August, they will carry with them a gift from their friends and neighbors in Lathrup presented at the luncheon.

Among the luncheon guests was Mrs. Walter's sister, Mrs. Lee Wilcox visiting from Flint. Other guests were Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mrs. Stephen Butcher, Mrs. Robert Angove, Mrs. Anthony Gavarella, Mrs. William Silagher, Mrs. Robert Neveau, Mrs. Bruce Sheffer, Mrs. Robert Stout, Mrs. Edward Tully and Mrs. Douglas Watson.

Imogene Hassall of England was honored at a dinner-dance party given Tuesday evening by Nancy Carnegie at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie.

Nancy, who has just graduated from the Royal Ballet school in London, brought Imogene, her roommate home for a six-week visit.

Nancy's other guests were Carol Jean Murphy, Susie Smyly, Marilyn Davis, Sara Strother, Vicky and Pat Zaun, Rosemary Bittrick, Nancy Jo Gildersleeve, Donna MacKechnie, Sandra Storm, Kay Finmore, Julie Hawk, Janet Easton and Elaine Sorenson.
