A weekend out of town usually is enjoyable, but when your husband plans it as a surprise "mystery trip" it's bound to be exciting too.

Mrs. Calvin R. Brown, 28515 Wellington, found this to be the case when she left last Friday noon with her husband and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Donald French of Roseale Park, for an unknown destination that pleasantly turned out to be Otsego ski club at Hidden Valley.

For a week before, the husbands had tantalized their wives with the prospect of the surprise weekend, refusing to divulge any details except that they should pack informal clothes.

The club, Mrs. Brown reports, had a "real crowd" with lots of fun ranging from water sports to just "soaking up the sun."

The John S. Wreford family, 26775 Crestwood, is back from a three-week northern vacation at a cottage on Long Lake near Traverse City.

Wreford was able to share the vacation, too, by commuting almost daily to business in Detroit in his own plane. He missed joining Mrs. Wreford and children, Stan and Blanche, only twice because of bad flying weather.

Mrs. Wreford contrasted his hour-and-fifteen-minute plane trip with the six and a half hours it took to drive home in her car.

This week Mrs. Wreford was busy seeing Stan off to camp for the first time.

He was leaving Tuesday for two weeks at YMCA camp Mahan-go-Dah-See at Loon Lake near Hiale, Bob Putnam, son of the Allan R. Putnams, 26645 Carol, left with him.

Boarding the bus at Birmingham YMCA Monday for camp Oheyesa near Holly were first-time camper

Bloomfield West Social Briefs

Young people in the Walnut Lake area are making their own good times these hot summer weeks with a series of teenage parties.

The latest was a swimming party hosted by Jerry Blanton at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blanton, of Walnut Lake Park.

Enjoying the barbecued dinner and dancing that followed it cool dip were Dick John and Nancy Louis, Bob Hilliard and Ann Roberson, Paul Norland and Carol Schebler, products division of Borg-Warner.

The Don Harter family, of Idlewood, are leaving a week to make their home in Decatur, Ill., where Harter will assume his duties as chief engineer of Marvel Scholer, products division of Borg-Warner.

Starting in school in Decatur will be the Harter youngsters, Linda and Don.

Harter was president of the Big of Bloomfield association for three years, president of the newly formed Birmingham chapter of the Veterans Affairs club and president of the Detroit chapter Model A club. He was also active in PTA at the Walnut Lake school.

Aug. 8-10 will find four scouts from Explorer post B-17 on a shakedown weekend at D-Bar-A scout ranch near Metamora learning how to saddle a burro and the sooting words to use to get him underway once he is saddled.

This training precedes a vacation starting Aug. 16 at Philmont Ranch in Cimarron, N.M., for John Ruth and Daniel Jackson, both of Birmingham, and Douglas Rustic and Gale Hargrave, Life Scouts.

The boys are looking forward to a visit to the home of Kit Carson, an 85-mile hike over the mountains (this is where that burro training will come in handy) and a try at gold panning.

After enjoying all that ranch life can offer, including trout fishing in the mountain streams, the boys will return to the Birmingham area just in time for the beginning of school.

An invigorating swim, a corn roast and barbecue, followed by dancing, were included in the party given by Sue Simonson July 26 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Simonson, of Craigin Drive.

Guests who enjoyed the festivities were Gary Wilbur, Ann Mullington, Bob Hillier, Betty Baney, Jerry Blanton, Sue Writie, Yvette Bette, Ron Nyvak, Paul Norland and Kathy Kukar. Others were Paul Simonson, Jane H. Harter, Bill Brown, Barbara Sale and Drew Novak.

Members of the Bloomfield 4-H club were justly proud of their float that appeared in the parade last night at the 4-H fair grounds near Pontiac.

A clover leaf in the 4-H colors of green and white reminded members to live up to their pledge which reads "I pledge my head to clear thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service and my health to better living for my club, my community and my country."

On Tuesday evening, six members, who own their own horses, rode in the cavalcade of horses, with the lead horse flying a flag displaying the club's emblem, made up by Betty Horning. Children astride their mounts were Donna, Carole and John Horning, Ralph Oxie, Lita Saunders and Lynn Thompson.

The fair runs from Aug. 5-8.

Representing B-17 were Ronald Hoekman, Jim Ruth, John Ruth and Jerry Gasette.

In the second of the three series met, held at Pershing High, July 23, the boys won first in backstroke and second in speed relays.

The final meet was held at Patton pool with boys from the entire Detroit area boy scout council. Despite this stiff competition the four earned second place in the backstroke and third in the 200-yard relays.
