Something Different

Very few people, except men like assistant Birmingham fire chief Stanley J. Church here, have ever seen this view. It's the inside of the city water tower near Derby junction high, and A. E. Speedy Response Revives Boy, 12

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fairhurst, 1271 Buffner, Birmingham, thanked speedy fire and police department response Thursday for reviving their asthma-stricken son, Tommy. Mrs. Fairhurst said Tommy, 12, woke up coughing around 11:30 p.m. He sat on the edge of his bed for a moment then fell to the floor gasping for breath, she said. She ran to the telephone and asked the operator for help. "The fire and police department both arrived within five minutes and gave him oxygen," she said. "It's a wonderful service."

Tommy, a student at Derby junior high school, recovered fully from the attack.

Auto Trouble Costs Visitor $70

A stalled automobile cost Duncan Smith of London, Ont., more than he counted on Sunday. Smith told Birmingham police he had engine trouble on Woodward near Merrill and got out of his car to summon help from a nearby garage.
After the car had been fixed and he left the scene, Smith discovered he had just $70 in five-dollar bills. He said he was carrying the United States currency loose in his pocket with a rubber band around it to keep it separate from his Canadian money.
