

How strange it often is that "anticipation is greater than realization." When anticipation dominates thought, there generally are mental images unexpressed and unexpressed by the actual realities. Example: contemplating a trip of brief or longer period of time, only "anticipation is 'king-size'" so often. Reality is . . . not quite so. Anticipation is born in desire, dreams.

Office Parties Boost Christmas Traffic Toll

The office party with its flowing bowl was blamed by the National Safety Council today for boosting the Christmas traffic toll.

"Either dry it up or cut it out," the Council urged business and industry.

Surveys made by the Council indicate, it said, that a sizable percentage of Christmas traffic accidents occur in the early hours of the holiday period. Many of these can be traced back to the office party and its highball hilarity.

the highway at a time they hurt the most—the Christmas season. "But don't forget—drinking and driving are a lethal combination anytime, anywhere, and not just in connection with the Christmas party."

THE COUNCIL is asking its 3,000 business and industrial members to take a new look at their office parties and either keep the cork in the bottle or eliminate the parties.

"It is tragically ironic," it said, "to celebrate a holiday dedicated to 'Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men' and then send people out on the public highway in a condition to injure or destroy their fellow men."

"We appeal to every driver to stay away from the wheel after drinking, and to every pedestrian to stay out of the street when he isn't in full possession of his faculties."

"The most dangerous drink ever concocted is 'One for the road.' Turn it down. You'll live longer—and so will the other fellow."

Customs Traced

The custom of making New Year's resolutions can be traced to a peacock. The colorful bird was a favorite Christmas dish in early England, according to research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia. It was customary for knights to take the "vow of the peacock" by making their pledge for the new year with their right hand on the peacock.

Be a 'Sanders Santa!'

(Give Sanders Candy)

Christmas Poinsettia Box
Poinsettia—the special Christmas flower—inspires this very special box, as you'll see on the colorful lid and on the old-fashioned mint centerpiece inside. You'll also find delicious fruits, nuts and creams in both dark and milk chocolate, as well as butter almond toffee, regents, pastel candies and many others.

Family Assortment
This Sanders assortment explains how Santa does such a good job of pleasing everybody! There are both dark and milk chocolates, with such deliciously different centers as mint chip, cherry cream and pecan marshmallow fudge. Among the specialty pieces are butter almond toffee, nut caramel rolls, cup fudge and many more.
