Hills Junior PTO Board Gives Tea

Bloomfield Hills junior high PTO board gave a tea Monday afternoon for room mothers, teachers and office personnel. Hospitality chairman for the tea was Mrs. John Zich, assisted by Mrs. Charles Erdmann.

The table was decorated and arranged by Mrs. Bruce Benway and Mrs. Mark Martin who is a member of the Wing Lake WAPA. The centerpiece made by Mrs. Benway was a Christmas tree made entirely of fruits, nuts and cones. At one end of the tea table, which glistened with silver candelabra and tea services, President Mrs. G. Gordon Nyquist served coffee while at the opposite end of the table president elect, Mrs. George Walker, Jr., served a festive Christmas punch. The colorful Christmas cookies were made by the PTO board.

Officers assisting with the tea were secretary, Mrs. Jackson Tunnaciff; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Townsend; membership chairman, Mrs. Robert Sudler and program chairman, Mrs. Martin Kennedy.

Workshop Goes Oriental

BERKSHIRES—A stay in New Grace hospital led to the meeting last week at which Mrs. J. P. (Joan) Lee of Livonia (right) demonstrated her technique with floral arrangements to the Berkshires branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden association. The young housewife and mother, formerly of China, was a special nurse at the hospital when she met Mrs. Buck Sullivan, (left) of 21890 Hampton, Westwood, who was a patient in the next room last February. Mrs. Sullivan invited her friend to speak to garden club members at their Christmas workshop last week at Birmingham Community House. Mrs. Lee's decorative talent, acquired when she lived in China, is being featured by a large Detroit department store. Mrs. Lee contributes donations she receives for her arrangements to China relief.
