Debbie Nesbitt Feted At Birthday Luncheon

Debbie Nesbitt celebrated her 10th birthday on Nov. 22 at a luncheon given by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nesbitt, of Derby road. Mrs. Nesbitt carried out the Thanksgiving and Christmas motif in decorations, food and games. Adams school friends present were Melinda and Christine Kline, Judi Leach, Carol Dickens, Judy Coward, Nancy Varian, Barbara Witterup, Corissa McCutcheon, Molly Kelly, Cindy Calderwood and Janet Kurth.

A recent bride was at the home of Mrs. Harold Day of Ridgewood road. Seated at the two tables were Mrs. George Benner, Mrs. Frank Sedent, Mrs. James Sowers, Mrs. Vernon Dearing, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Charles Penninger and Janet Kurth.

Honorees recently of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman of Brooklawn road, and children Nancy, Michael and Tommy was Mrs. Gorman's mother, Mrs. Margaret Boggs of Cleveland, Ohio.

The Gravelly Barkers, 901 Brooklawn road, entertained Mrs. Barkers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. of Newark, Ohio, for the holidays.

The Korbs appreciated the time they spent with their grandchildren, Robbie, 3 yrs. old and Johnny, 1 yr. old.

Mr. and Mrs. James Adams also of Brooklawn road stopped over Thanksgiving evening for cocktails and to see the Korbs.

Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Gobeke, and daughter Jane, 1433 Wrenwood road, were Gobeke's mother, Mrs. Peter Gobeke of Bay City and his brother, Edwin Gobeke of Battle Creek.

The Suburban investments held its monthly meeting recently at the home of Robert Distler, 881 Brooklawn road.

Reports were delivered by Maurice Baumann on the Selsene Corp., Robert Distler on Devo-Wayne and by Lawrence Harper on National Distillers.

Others present were George Whitehead, Mrs. George Roebuck, Douglas Watson, Mrs. Charles Hooker, Mrs. William Taylor, Charles Penninger, Frank Straub, Fred Mason, and Al Gurley. Jerry Mariotti was a guest for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, 902 Brooklawn road, and son, Jimmie, motored to Louisville, Ky., recently on a business trip and to visit their families, the James Adams, Sr., and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hale.

A bridge luncheon was in Mrs. Adams honor and she also enjoyed some early Christmas shopping and attended a wedding of friends before returning.

The annual Christmas party of the Adams village extension club was at the home of the president, Mrs. Alex Nicholas of 1535 Bowers.

Various games were led by recreation chairman, Mrs. Keith Carpenter, and assisted by Mrs. Nicholas. Instead of exchanging gifts a donation was made toward the club project to help the Oakland county children's home at Pontiac.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. David Solak, Mrs. J. Harold Mikesell and Mrs. William Miller.

The next regular meeting will be Jan. 6 at the home of Mrs. William Kelley, 1892 Bowers.

Girl scout troop 304 from Derby junior high school enjoyed an afternoon at the Bowler bowling alley, where the young ladies tested their skill at the game. Their leader Mrs. William Talbot and Mrs. Schmidt accompanied the girls.

Members present were Marilyn Watson, Randy Sims, Diane Sturman, Corlene Schmidt, Christy Talbot, Susan Morrill and Cathy King-scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young, 1055 Brooklawn road, proudly announced the arrival of a girl Janet Marie born Dec. 2 and weighing 8 lbs. 3 oz.

At home anxiously awaiting the baby's arrival are brother Kirk, 2 yrs. old, maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Young both of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schuler, 1068 Brooklawn court, entertained playmates of their son, Scott, at a luncheon recently. The occasion was Scott's fifth birthday.

Guests were Sally and Susie Spatz, Kathy and Todd Becker, Terry Clougherty, Johnnie Reardon, Cindy Mariotti, Johnnie Tar-

Plaque for Appreciation

Richard Chapman, one of the founders of the Birmingham Hammond Organ club, reads the inscription on the plaque received by Mrs. Lucille McMurtrie, in appreciation for her guidance and inspiration. Mrs. McMurtrie is on hand at the meetings, helps with programming and advises the club.

Troth Reveals Altar Date

Mr. and Mrs. Grover J. Ramsey of Springfield, Mass., formerly of Detroit, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Evonne Eileen to William P. Old. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Old of Birmingham.

The couple will be married Dec. 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the Redeemer Lutheran church, East Seven Mile road and Straub, Detroit.

Miss Ramsey is a student at Wayne State university. She is majoring in business administration and is a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. William is a graduate of the
