

Peti-point Garlands

Be prepared to fall in love... with the soft sole slipper. They're as charming as an eighteenth century print... posy-strewn tapered slippers in an imported peti-point design. They're beautifully hand-lasted, with a smooth flexible leather sole that means supreme softness... are trimmed with the exclusive elasticized collar that means fit to perfection. They're ideal for those casual leisure hours with slim, trim pants. They come in multicolors on a natural background or black background, designed to complement many an ensemble. Available in Birmingham area stores for only $5.00, they come in a wide range of sizes small to extra large, 5 to 10 1/2. For shopping information call MI 4-1106.

Edward Reids, Jr., Home From Caribbean Cruise

The Edward S. Reids, Jr., of Clifton road have just returned from a Caribbean cruise and her family, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Upper, Nadia and Elizabeth of Washington, D. C.

They all enjoyed the pool aboard the boat, the many parties and entertainment provided—Nadia and Elizabeth most of all. These five and three-year-olds, dressed as Chinese mandarins led the dress parade.

First stop was Curacao, then Caracas, Venezuela where they were met and shown about by a Mr. Boogey, head of the Parke Davis laboratory there.

Much to the delight of the children they rode a cable car to the top of a mountain, 7000 feet high. Here they saw a luxurious sky scraper hotel—lived in by only three people because of the political situation.

They enjoyed the lovely beaches on Cuba, in Kingston, Jamaica and Nassau as well as the quaintness of the towns. The children enjoyed a ride in a survey pulled by a mule in Nassau.

At Port Everglades they met friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hanford of Montreal, Canada.

Back in New York they visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Reid and Carroll and Richard of Brooklyn. The Reids and their three week visit will be spent both here and there. Mr. and Mrs. William O. Reid and daughter Laura were visited also, in Gulf Mills, King of Prussia, Pa., so the Reids and all their family were able to see one another.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Irving Woolson of St. Glengary road were in New York for the Imperial Ball given by Chrysler Corp. for hospitalized veterans' services last weekend.

They met their Serene Highness Prince Ranier III and Princess Grace of Monaco and report that the princess looked sweet and lovely and that they both are most charming.

Walter J. Simons of Wood-ale court attended also.

National Association of Manufacturers' meetings in New York City were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Miles of Westwood drive. This year Mrs. Miles attended most of the meetings and the head honore before and found them stimulating and very interesting.

They also saw performances "Swing at Camp Bello" and "The Music Man." They dined Friday night at Top of the G in a very lovely setting.

During the lights of New York with the many street approachings and leaving the city was a thrill from the 49th floor of 666 Fifth Avenue.

Spending last week also in New York were Mr. and Mrs. John C. McCarry of Yarmouth road. They enjoyed several cocktail parties and dinners in connection with the NAM-NIC meetings that Mr. McCarry was attending. They gave "The Music Man" and returned in time to attend the President's Ball at Deland Hills Country Club.

Sharing their table were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Rose and Mr. and Mrs. George Turner of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. C. Boyd Stockmeyer of Detroit.

The F. A. Smarts of Overhill road have returned for the Christmas season. This past month was spent in their winter home in Pompano Beach, Fla.

The San Marshals of Half Moon let this week to make their home in Cleveland: Marshall is regional manager for Streets Carriage division of F. W. Dodge Corp. and they are moving to regional headquarters.

"The Abner" was enjoyed by the Robert Walls of Happy Cross road
