Homes Are "Face-lifted" Too

Dr. R. Hamilton White completely re-modeled this home at 379 Hamilton, to use as his office. The old home originally housed the Mudge Electric company owned by Harry Mudge. Dr. White credited his wife, Dorothy, with the changes.

PTA Will Request Report on School

Resignations of old and appointments of new teachers, and a request by the PTA for a building report on the new junior-senior high school will highlight tonight's board of education meeting. There are 44,146 drug addicts in the United States, according to the National Bureau of Narcotics. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of schools, said there was nothing "special" scheduled for the meeting.

In South Carolina

Army recruit Robert L. Andres, whose wife, Jo Ann, lives at 1475 Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, recently completed eight weeks of basic combat training at Fort Jackson, S. C. He is a graduate of Florida Southern college.
