In mid-January.

"The Film—Evolution of a New Art Form" traces the history and aesthetic development of the motion picture as an international art form.

MSU will instruct the course beginning Jan. 13 at Birmingham high school.

DR. CALLAGHAN of MSU will deal with "The Age of Enlightenment" beginning Jan. 14. He will discuss the ideas of David Hume, which touched off a philosophical revolution. Hume's approach will be examined and evaluated in addition to the thinking of Kant and Newton.

"AESTHETICS in Your Flower Garden," prepared for botanical enthusiasts, will begin Jan. 27. Dr. Rogers of Wayne State university will teach practical knowledge and appreciation for gardeners.

"WHY WE Behave Like Human Beings" and the normal personality will be a course topic, beginning Jan. 28, under the instruction of Dr. Martin Cappelletti of the University of Michigan.

Two-hour classes will be held for 10 weeks.

Registrations are now being accepted at the adult education office of the Hill building.

Outside Teutonic countries, Christmas presents are unknown. Their place is taken in France and Italy by gifts given on New Year's Day.

LEGAL NOTICE

John E. Muritz, Atty. 727 Penobscot Bldg., Detroit 26.

STATE OF MICHIGAN—In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland.

In the Matter of the Estate of John Howard Groves, deceased.

At a session of said Court, held at the Court House in the City of Pontiac, Michigan, on the 11th day of December, A. D. 1958.

Present, Honorable Arthur E. Moore, Judge of Probate.

Wyle E. Groves, Executor of said estate, appeared and filed his first and final account, and petition praying for the examination and allowance thereof, for the determination of the legal heirs of said deceased, assignee of the residue of said estate and for the discharge of said executor.

It is Ordered, that the 11th day of January, A. D. 1959, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Court in the Court House in the City of Pontiac, Michigan, be and is hereby appointed as the time and place for hearing said petition.

It is further Ordered that notice be given to all interested parties as shown in the records in this case by delivering a copy of this order to each of them personally, or by mailing such copy to each of them by registered mail with return receipt demanded addressed to their respective last known addresses as shown by the files and records in this case.

And it is further Ordered that public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order once each week for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing in the Birmingham Eccentric, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county.

ARTHUR E. MOORE, Judge of Probate.

Smoke Forces 8 To Leave Their Home

An oil furnace backfired early Tuesday morning and forced the family of Holland Hurteau, 1502 Hurteau, and his parents-in-law to leave the house.

Hurteau, 32, was awakened at 6:25 a.m. Tuesday by a muffled explosion and saw the house was full of smoke.

His wife, Anna May, 39, their four children, Suzanne, 10; Gregory, 7; Linda, 5, and Janet, 2, and parents-in-law, Homer and Elsie Glasmeier, were treated for smoke inhalation by Adams station firemen.

The backfire blew off the smoke pipe leading to the chimney, but no other damage was reported.

In other runs answered by the Birmingham fire department, an estimated $1,000 in damage was reported at the Robert Schroch Studios, 416 N. Woodward, Saturday.

Fire department officials believe a careless smoker dropped a cigarette.

The apartment is owned by G. Sheehan.

B'ham Residents Help with Party

Several Birmingham area residents pooled their efforts to help put on the annual Christmas party for handicapped children at the Elks Temple in Pontiac, Dec. 10.

The party was sponsored by the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children.

ette into a pile of wastepaper at the rear of the store.

An overheated fireplace at the Garden Terrace, 1911 Villa, caused an estimated $50 damage late Sunday.

The apartment is owned by G. Sheehan.
