

Area Residents Receive Pre-Holiday Invitations

Pre-holiday party invitations are being received by area residents in celebration of Christmas at open houses, buffet suppers, afternoon teas and morning coffees.

The Benjamin Leeches of Juniper court will be entertaining at an "open house" party on Friday evening for friends and neighbors. Among the guests at the cocktail and buffet party will be the Ralph Cookers, the Richard Forbush, the John Roberts, the Thomas Bransons and the John Whitakers of Birmingham.

The Fred Harris and the Charles Leeches will be attending from Mrs. Charles Burrell will be entertaining at a desert-coffee in her Tewksbury drive home on Thursday afternoon. The guests include neighbors and friends in Charnwood.

Last week Mrs. Burrell hosted another pre-holiday coffee inviting a number of area residents.

The Beautiful Saviour Lutheran church of North Adams road held a holiday pot luck supper for the church families at the Eastover school on Friday evening. Games for the children followed the supper hour. Participating were the Rev. Donald Zill, pastor of Beautiful Saviour, and Mrs. Zill. On the planning committee were Mrs. Charles Burrell of Tewksbury and Mrs. Robert Lendit of Manderford road.

The St. Catherine Guild of St. James Episcopal church held their Christmas party at the home of the Marc Hagermans of Butternut Hill drive on Tuesday evening. Each guest arrived with a small gift which was exchanged at game time. Among the 25 attending the dessert party were the Reverends wives of St. James, Mrs. Kenneth Gass and Mrs. Thomas Phillips.

On Wednesday Mrs. Hagerman hosted a luncheon at her Butternut Hill drive home honoring Mrs. Eugene Moorhead, a newcomer to Range Circle drive. Seated at the luncheon table centered with tiny angels, Christmas baubles and greens were Mrs. Clyde Morgan, Mrs. Henry McDonnell, Mrs. Denman Jacobson and Mrs. Thomas Richling.

Mrs. William Jaenichen of North Adams road hosted a pre-holiday coffee on Monday morning for board members of the Osage Garden Club, branch of the WWPFA. Plans were being completed for the "dessert card party" the club will be hosting at the Showcase, Inc., in Birmingham on Jan. 23.

The Lynn Hader of Butternut Hill drive motored to Jackson last weekend to visit relatives, the Jack Hudlers and their three children. The Hudlers are looking forward to Christmas and their holiday houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ackerman of Pilon, Mich., relatives of Mrs. Hudler.

The Roger Blackwoods of Charnwood drive spent three weeks in California while attending the National Real Estate Board convention, recently.

While touring San Francisco they rode on the cable cars, dined at Emies and Top of the Mark. While there they stayed at the Cliff hotel.

They went on to Oakland to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Aserine and children, Barbara and Cavan, at their turkey ranch. Mrs. Aserine and Mrs. Blackwood are sisters. From there they visited Monterey and Carmel by the Sea before returning home.

It was "old home week" for the Fredericks, Oliver of Hickory Heights drive when they arrived

Dec. 18, 1958 THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC 3-C

In Indianapolis, Ind., to visit friends a week ago.

Dinner dance and supper parties were given in their honor. Mrs. Oliver met with old school friends over bridge luncheons and visited the city's new Glendale Shopping Centre while Oliver traveled to St. Louis on business.

They also visited Mr. and Mrs. George Pence at South Bend, who were attendants at the Oliver's wedding some years ago.

The sixth grade Eastover girl scouts of troop 324 met at the home of Mrs. Paul Trimmer of Bloomcrest drive, for their Christmas meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

Each Girl Scout brought a dozen Christmas cookies that she had made for the Christmas Cookie Box that will go to the children at the Pontiac State hospital. Assisting Mrs. Trimmer, co-leader of the troop, was Mrs. Robert Clark of Greentree, the troops leader.

Mrs. Randall Mulvaney of Tutbury lane entertained at a "Christmas Cookie Swap Party" on Wednesday afternoon. The guests arrived bringing five dozen of their own Christmas cookies to swap, which gave them an extensive variety of cookies to take home for the holidays. Dessert, coffee and bingo, completed the much enjoyed afternoon. Among the 21 guests were Mrs. H. Clark, Mrs. George Master and Mrs. George Malony.

The Randall Mulvaney's entertaining at a dinner party and bridge last weekend, celebrating the holidays ahead. Their guests were all of Green Lake and included the Kenneth Hedges, the Almer Bochs and the Ernest Fullers.
