

BHS Juniors Agree—'Candy Is Dandy'

Nearly six tons of candy stacked Friday by BHS juniors in the distribution headquarters, stood much higher than 5'1" Maggie Ostrow (center). Her pals Sally Garrison (left) and Cathy Lewis agree, however, that Maggie is even sweeter.

Five students "pushed" the candy sale at Birmingham high school last week. Profits from the sale totaling $5,000, will be added to the class treasury and will finance the J-Hop and other junior activities. Faculty supervisors of the sale were Miss Alice Price and Harold Van Dragt.

Yes, Chuck Coffin really was exhausted after hauling "pounds and pounds and pounds" of candy to homerooms. He just couldn't make it down the hall again so fellow juniors, Jackie Paulus, John Taylor and Francie Von Maur gave him a ride in the delivery cart.

When the 11,989 pounds of candy were nearly distributed, Robert Garza (left) and Bill Bryant realized just how hard they had worked. Bryant was so famished he was ready to eat the sweets, box and all.

Barons Downed by Brighton

Well, it was bound to happen sometime—our twice victorious Barons were defeated last Friday by the Brighton five, 52-46, here on home ground, but as one can see by the score, it was not a crushing defeat by any means. And, there is a bright note—Oak Park, considered a very tough team to beat, was unable to stop our Barons as was proved by the 49-41 defeat that was handed them. Better luck tomorrow at West Bloomfield.

Last Thursday the Ski club held their first trip of the season, taking a bus to Granplan, near Lake Orion. There was jolly singing and merriment on the way up, and high spirits prevailed, but Mike McAlpine and yours truly had to put a small damper on the festivities, Mike by spraining his ankle, and I, not to be outdone, by spraining both ankles and a thumb. Two mishaps is actually a good record when most of the club members (See BILLBOARD, Page 2-D)

Make a monetary gift to another and it may help, or it may hinder the receiver's plans for a successful life. Many material gifts do vanish, disappear, become forgotten. But the kindly help, the uplifting and inspiring word you give to another may remain as a help and guide during all of that person's life. This is one way we can give of one's own self—so rewarding to all concerned.
