Foxcroft newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Hawkes, who recently moved to their new home on Crabtree road? They formerly lived in Royal Oak. Hawkes is with the research laboratories at Ethyl Corp. They hape two sons, David, 11, and John, 9, who both attend Wing Lake school.

Now Hear This . . . .

Doing things with sound are Harold Roseberry and his son, Tom, who gave a lively demonstration and explanation of sound to the second meeting of the new Men's club of Franklin Community church last Thursday night. Roseberry, of 26980 Wellington, Franklin, and his son, of 15925 W. 14 Mile, Westwood; have more than a passing interest in their subject. The two are in the business of setting up public, address and other sound systems. Their talk to Men's club members last week followed a dinner in the church social hall.
