THE WEATHER KING

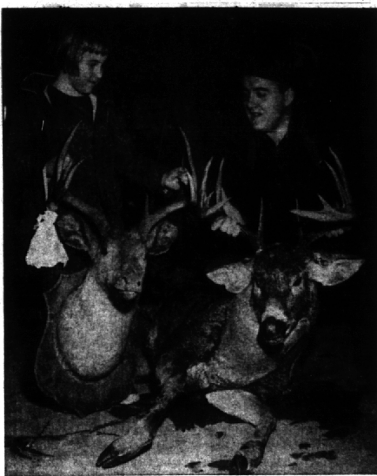

Zero King's Classic
Year 'Round Coat

Here's the coat that knows no season. You'll wear your Weather King the year 'round, in any weather. The outer coat of Dacron® and Cotton by Reeves sheds water naturally. It keeps you snug and dry in a spring or summer shower—and by zipping in the all-wool alpaca lining and collar, it will protect you from the coldest winter days.

This Zero King classic is the smartest utility coat we have seen in a long time and we urge you to come in and try one on in your size. You'll be amazed at its lightweight practicality. $65

First One's a 12-Pointer

His first buck was a 12-pointer for 20-year-old Tom Naumann, who compares it with a 10-pointer his great-grandfather shot about 50 years ago. Holding the mounted achievement of her great-grandfather for comparison with Tom's buck is his sister, six-year-old Carol. Tom, of 183 Poppleton, Birmingham, got his buck Nov. 17 on Neevish island near the Soo.

Roundup

night held in the high school gym from 7 to 10 p.m. every Monday. Adults can participate in volleyball, badminton, ping pong, basketball and the trampoline exercises.

And the final recreation ski club meeting will be held tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in the Community House.

Sidelines

mantle of "Dean of Sportswriters" was placed on his shoulders. He always wore it well.

In all the interviews and quotes that appeared in the newspapers after his death early Thanksgiving morning, it seemed that everyone echoed the same sentiment: "He was always a gentleman." Indeed he was.

Cranes

Collins, a 6'4" senior, had too many semesters and would not be eligible to compete against four-year high schools.

At this point, Kenney was still in good shape because he had 6'4" junior center John Hayden to replace Collins.

A day later, Hayden damaged his elbow in practice and it is still not known how long he will be out.

HOWEVER, the Cranes' captain, senior guard Tom Bray has survived the opening practices along with veteran backcourt man Jim Williams who is 6'9". Both are expected to see a lot of action tonight along with newcomer Roger Rathenberger, a 6' forward and Mike Kell, a 6'11" junior forward who has steel springs instead of legs.

Expected to handle the center and pivot chores during the next few weeks is Bill Schuman. This 6'3" junior was expected to alternate in one of the forward slots until his three teammates were struck by that "jinx."
