For better's 19 years, downtown Sirringham's Christmes shoppers have enjoyed litering to Christ same nunic as they butted in an and the control of the contr op and down Woodward and Maple.

Birmingham Junior chamber of commerce members took their "slopted" Children on a shopping tip Saturday aftermoon. This is one of the club's principal charles. About 50 less fortunate children were given money to buy furtisman presents for their Mom, Dad, sister or brothers. If they hadron family, they could spend the money on themselves.

Police and fire officials have been humming "Silent Night" recently for more than one reason. Traffic accident reports to date have been accident reports to date have been sim during the 1988 Christmas season. Westwood, Southfield, Lathrup and Bloomfield police de-partments have been "en garde" but troubles are few. Aside from faulty furnaces and neglected fire-plike embers, the fire departments haven't had much cause for alarm.
