Annual College Information Day At Women's Club

Birmingham high school girls can expect a lively and informative session when the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's colleges holds its annual College Information Day on Tuesday, Dec. 30 at the Women's City Club auditorium in Detroit.

Parents and girls in the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grades are invited for coffee and refreshments at 10:30 a.m., and continue to 12:30 p.m.

Highlight of this year's event is the participation of vacationing graduates from Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley. They will show colored slides and describe their campus life, and a panel discussion will cover the curriculum and student activities at each of the seven colleges.

AT THE CLOSE of the program, alumnae will join the undergraduates at individual tables to answer questions about entrance requirements and scholarships. The college girls will also answer questions about college life and describe their campus life, and a panel discussion will cover the curriculum and student activities at each of the seven colleges.

The Committee reports that the fall fund-raising project, which featured a lecture by famed rocket expert Dr. Werner von Braun, resulted in a financial surplus of $3,000. This money will be used to provide scholarship aid to Michigan girls interested in the seven eastern colleges.

Birmingham residents who are arranging the College Information Day are: Mrs. Farbury Schmidt of 6230 Wing Lake road; Mrs. Leonard Horton of 4380 Squirrel Rd.; Mrs. William L. Bartholomew, 174 Williamsburg Rd.; Mrs. William H. Hildinger, 15609 Dunblane.
