

'Come Skate With Me...'

The Provancher family on Wiltshire, Lathrup, enjoyed swimming in their pool last summer, but the convenient ice rink it has provided for Doug and Nancy is a joy this winter. The two youngsters spend hours together in their "figure skating haven."

Yuletide Carolers Take Sleigh Ride In Valley Woods

VALLEY WOODS — The old-fashioned neighborhood Christmas caroling was brought to life Sunday by guests of the Charles DeWitt. An old harness awaited the carolers as they gathered, dressed warmly for the ride through the forest. The ride continued off and on and the jingle of bells made merry.

Hot chicken dishes were left at the DeWitts to be enjoyed at a buffet supper following the song fest. Huddling around the warm fire were the Walter Nylands, Mr. and Mrs. William Fiala, the Frank Wardell, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Glina, the Ken Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. John Banning, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Tessa, the Ken Kittle, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Andrus, the Bert Gatzwiler, and Mr. and Mrs. William Harris.

Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. R. J. O'Brien, Mrs. Donald Neff and Mrs. Robert Glina assisted the hosts. Mrs. John Hefflin of the Valley Woods WPGA Christmas party last Monday.

Beverly Hostesses Plan Dance, Lunch

WEST BEVERLY — Thirty members of the West Beverly hostess club attended the Tuesday meeting at the home of Mrs. Martin Hoover of Riverside. Plans for the February dinner and dance and the Shamrock Luncheon in March were discussed. The next meeting is planned for Jan. 21.

Old St. Nick Honored By Westwood Scouts

BEVERLYS — Here is a switch! Santa Claus was on the receiving end of the seasonal gift-giving spree last Tuesday when Pack B-24 cub scouts held their meeting at Beverly school.

SANTA PORTRAYED by John Ackerman was presented with gifts of toys by each of the 60 cubs with instructions that he was to give them to the Goodfellows who would in turn distribute them to needy families. Each of the parents gave articles of canned goods, sugar, flour and coffee.

DURING THE meeting, Gary Humeney was inducted as a Scout. Each of the 10 dens made Christmas ornaments and decorated a tree. Dens 5 and 10 presented a skit, "The Meaning of the Golden Rule," written by den mother, Leslie Poland.

CUB SCOUTS participating in the play were Dick Ackerman, Tom Gery, Joel Flory, Jimmy Harding, Jimmy Hughes, Larry Grand, Allen Ferguson, Allen Gageit, Jay Simanock and Doug Carr. Benjamin Ferguson is den mother of den 10 and Mrs. Halg Hughes is den mother of den 5.

Berkshire Women Plan Activities for New Year

SOUTH BEKSHIRES — The agenda for the coming year was reviewed at the officers and board members meeting of the South Berkshires Women's association Wednesday at the home of Mrs. William Harrison, Sr., on Vernon drive.

Two carols of toys and clothing, collected by area teen groups, were delivered to the Glenn Memorial Center in Detroit. The drive was under the direction of Mrs. Victor Zalts and Mrs. Jarl Andeer.

MRS. Thomas Canham will head the membership drive which will close at the February general association meeting.

Plans are formulating for an area skating rink in the vicinity of Northome and Bermuda lane. Plans were discussed for a joint luncheon with the Valley Woods Women's association at the International Institute in April.

A PROGRAM entitled "This is Your Voice" will be presented by the Bell Telephone company at the February general meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Young on Loonmore drive.

The January board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Melvin Groves on Southome drive.

Enthusiastic cubs in den 4, pack 24, have been working feverishly to complete Christmas centerpiece and aluminum trays for mother's holiday gift. They will be given early so they may be used for holiday entertaining.

Making plans to attend the hockey game and guest appearance on the Saturday, Sherry TV show are Rod Rausche, Ronnie Nead, of Lansing.

The Marvin R. Marsh family of Beechwood spent last weekend in Ann Arbor where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Marsh's sister, Dillma Larnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Larnes of Ridge Marsh, 7, was the ring bearer.

Grandmother Mrs. Arthur Lane of Bedford has had the time of her life for the past several weeks entertaining a small visitor, her granddaughter, 10-month-old Kathryn Ruth, daughter of the Paul C. Grants, Jr., of East Stroudsburg, Pa. Last Monday, Kathryn Ruth was the honor guest and the center of attraction at a coffee given by Mrs. Lane to introduce her to neighbors and friends. Kathryn Ruth's parents arrived last week to spend the Christmas holidays with the Lanes and his parents, the Paul C. Grants of Birmingham.

Lathrup AF Cadet Hosts Dinner Party

LATHRUP — At home for the Christmas holidays from the Air Force Academy Hill Carnegie, son of the Andrew Carnegie of Glenwood, hosted a group of friends at a dinner party Monday before the luncheon at Bloomfield Hills country club.

Nancy Carnegie, attending school in London, won't be home for the holidays, but writes that she was selected to sell programs for charity at the opening of the London production of the "West Side Story."

Nancy and some of her friends made lovely pictures in new Sylphides costumes and caught a glimpse of Princess Margaret in her new pomegranate hair do.
