 that I had devoured his model."

SINCE THEN, his non-theatrical interest has continued on the less hazardous activity of business. "He takes such pride in being a businessman that for the one whose heart is in the theatre," said his wife, "Even though Borge says that I know about music is when it begins and when it ends," she laughingly added.

Going home for the holidays meant that the Borgeses plan to spend a quiet Christmas and New Year's Eve literally watching the roof.

LEGAL NOTICE

John E. Martin, Atty. - 727 Penobscot Bldg., Detroit 26, Mich. 12-514

STATE OF MICHIGAN - In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland.

In the Matter of the Estate of John Howard Groves, Deceased.

At a session of said Court, held at the Court House in the City of Pontiac, in said County, on the 24th day of December, A. D. 1958.

Present, Honorable Arthur E. Moore, Judge of Probate.

Wyle E. Groves, Executor of said estate having filed in said Court his first and final account, and petition praying for the examination and allowance thereof, for the determination of the legal heirs of said deceased, assignment of the residue of said estate and for the discharge of said executor:

It is Ordered, that the 5th day of January, A. D. 1959, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Court in the Court House in the City of Pontiac, Michigan, be and is hereby appointed as the time and place for hearing said petition.

Ordered that notice be given to all interested parties as shown on a copy of this order to each of them personally, or by registered mail with return receipt, or by publication in their respective last known addresses as shown by the census and records in this cause.

And it is further Ordered that public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order once each week for three successive weeks previous to said hearing, in the Pontiac Tribune, a general newspaper printed and circulated in said County of Oakland.

ARTHUR E. MOORE, Judge of Probate.

BORGE'S own name (pronounced Borg-ah) is often mispronounced by Americans. Since coming to the United States 14 years ago, he's been called everything from Ed Sullivan's assistant Borg-ee to the sinister Borgias.

Speaking without a trace of her Kentucky birthplace, Sanna Borg gave the appearance of a high-styled fashion model.

"My husband bought my dress and shoes and designed the pin" (a diamond and pearl brooch), and said, "He likes to buy beautiful things—clothes for me and antiques for our home."

For while he took up painting as a hobby. But one day as he took a break from the canvas while I was reading, I nonchalantly took an apple from a nearby fruit bowl. When Borge returned he discovered

How Grateful Are You . . . ?

We have so many good things in this life. The good health with which we are blessed, the ease of travel the world over, and the constant presence of good reading and education are only a start.

The beautiful and kindly funeral service for those departed is one of today's real blessings. Everything, yes everything is done to restore peace and tranquility to those in sorrow—for which all are most grateful.

How could a party be anything but fun with Victor Borge not only the honored guest, but an entertaining one, too. Borge was introduced to Birmingham area people by his friends, the Ernest Jones of Bloomfield Hills. Enjoying "Borgisms" are (left to center) Jones, Mrs. Borge and Mrs. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Semon Knudson (right) laugh heartily at his steady flow of witticisms.
