

News Highlights

(Continued from Preceding Page)

bills going to property owners about Dec. 1.

Former township trustee and present chairman of the city's zoning board, Thomas M. Costello, was appointed to the vacant Southfield council seat of the late T. Neil McGregor.

Issue of Nov. 6, 1958

All is not lost, Republicans: You still have Oakland county! Democrats may have made impressive gains in much of the nation, but they made only token gains in Oakland county.

William Mitchell of Hamilton, Bloomfield township, was elected vice-president in charge of General Motors styling staff by the GM board of directors Tuesday.

The old school bell from the little one-room house down the road has been placed atop a handsome structure in a court at the new Pine Lake elementary school. It will be dedicated along with the school next week.

Last Saturday's play saw the Birmingham Little League Football season draw to a close with the southern division producing the varsity champs, Tigers (6-0), and one of its freshman teams, Boilermakers, tied for the championship with the Hoosiers, western division, and Indians, eastern division. All posted four wins and two losses.

Issue of Nov. 13, 1958

The voices of 350 members of one of the world's finest choirs swelled past the doors of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Woodward at Chesterfield, last Sunday.

One, big, smashing success! It is the only way to describe the United Foundation Torch Drive campaign in the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin region that went over its quota last week.

Friends and church members will gather in the First Baptist church sanctuary Sunday to honor and pay tribute to one of the area's most devoted church men, Rev. Dr. Emil Kuntz. Dr. Kuntz will finish his work here Sunday, 11 years to the day from the date he came here to be pastor of the First Baptist church.

Homer Heideman, president of the Franklin Community library appeared before the village council to see about getting public funds for its continued operation. He was told that nothing could be done until preparation of the next village budget in March.

Issue of Nov. 20, 1958

The Harry Klimushyn scholarship fund memorial is definite. Birmingham high school students, parents, faculty members, friends of the family, students from other

(Continued on Next Page)

Here for Lecture

OCTOBER 30—Allstair Cooke talks to Betty Paysner, 3223 North Adams, Birmingham, as he arrives at Birmingham theatre for his town Hall lecture.

At Celebrity Luncheon

OCTOBER 2—Pausing outside Birmingham Country club, Dr. Margaret Mead (center) chats with Birmingham Town hall president, Mrs. George H. Carey (left), and Mrs. O. F. Pearson, following Friday's celebrity luncheon.

Honored at Dedication

NOVEMBER 20—A standing ovation was given to Robert and Mae Callow last Thursday when the new Pine Lake elementary school was dedicated. The longtime residents of the area near the school were honored for their generosity in selling to the Bloomfield Hills school district at far below market value 12 1/4 acres for the school site.

Thousands of Heating Systems have not been Cleaned for Years!

Consequently chimneys and flues are loaded with soot which can result in a tragic fire loss, excessive fuel bills and costly service calls.

WE HAVE THE WORLD'S MOST POWERFUL TRUCK... ITS ALL WEATHER VACUUM CLEANERS WILL CLEAN IN A BLIZZARD

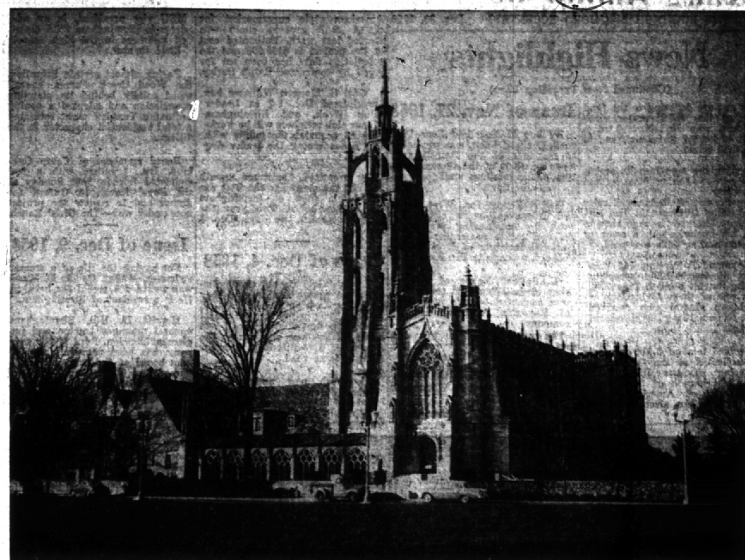

Michigan Heating, Inc.

88 Newberry, Pontiac

FE 8-6621

FE 8-6651

FE 2-2254

Church Dedicated Today

NOVEMBER 23—The new Kirk in the Hills Presbyterian church was dedicated today. The church is situated on a 40 acre estate on E. Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills.

SCREENS and STORM SASH FLUSH DOORS
• Combination Doors and Windows
• Cupboard Doors and Drawers
• Plywood—Kile Dried Lumber
1184 Grant MI 4-9424
WOODCRAFT CO.

GREETINGS & GIFTS
are brought to you from
Friendly Neighbors
& Civic & Social Welfare
Leaders through
WELCOME WAGON
On the occasion of
Change of residence
Arrivals of Newcomers
to Birmingham
MRS. H. WALES PRICE
Midwest 4-0516
(No cost or obligation)

GOING formal?

Modern Rental Service

of our own Garments...

All the elegance of "going formal" is yours through our modern rental service. It's easy to rent the proper formal attire from our complete selections of the very newest fashions and accessories. All garments are thoroughly cleaned, pressed to perfection and fitted to you with custom-made precision. Our formal counseling service is at your service, without charge.

Phone MI 4-1777

Matthew's
of Birmingham

TUXEDOS FULL DRESS
DINNER JACKETS
CUTAWAYS STROLLERS

Free Parking in Rear of Store
288 E. Maple, Birmingham

'Welcome Cake'

OCTOBER 2—Mrs. Genevieve Maxwell (right), staffer on The Daily Star, Beirut, Lebanon, and daughter of a Bloomfield couple, helps prepare a "welcome to Lebanon" cake to be sent by helicopter to a mountain outpost manned by United States Army troops. Left is Freda Dahlin of San Francisco, USIS secretary of the United States embassy in Beirut.

Uncle Harry (Saginaw)—Who but Aunt Madge would have ferreted out the secret that his private passion is... butterflies?

Sonia (Grand Rapids)—Happily engrossed in the record album her boyfriend (of the moment) sent her.

Sonia's Beau (of the moment, from Kal-amazoo)—He actually wears that tie Sonia sent him. Love is a very powerful thing.

Aunt Madge (Detroit)—An admirer sent Madge perfume. It's called "Great Expectations"—she hasn't been the same since.

Peter (Grand Rapids)—Granny knows small boys, so Peter now packs the pearl-handled six-shooters this side of the Rockies.

Granny (Ann Arbor)—Granny's latest interest is golf. The driver from Madge should help improve her handicap.

...and they all thank each other by telephone

Just now everybody's bubbling over with gratitude and affection. This is the time to remember Long Distance. By Long Distance you can say "Thank you for the gift" warmly, personally, spontaneously. Those you call will get a big kick out of it. So will you. Phone and see.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY