Merry Christmas for Foreign Students

The Raymond W. Morgans, 1688 North-lawn, Birmingham, have a son, David, sta-tioned with the U.S. Army in Turkey, so they invited two Turkish air force officers to spend Christmas with them. Above, Ero-gan Burmen and Saffet Emiroglu (2nd and 3rd from left) use a map to show the Mor-gans where they live in Turkey. Both men are studying engineering at the University of Michigan. The Protestant foundation for international students at U of M, sponsored by various churches and United Church Women groups, places the students in Michigan homes. Mrs. George Burnam, state chairman of the international student project, was responsible for placing students in this area.
