They'll Dance Roumanian Rhapsody

South Oakland Symphony Society will present the South Oakland Symphony orchestra in the second of a series of five concerts under the direction of Henri Nono. Performance will be at 3:30 p.m., Dec. 14 at Oak Park high school auditorium. Feature of the forthcoming concert will be the Contemporary Civic Ballet featuring local girls, Marilyn Moss of Birmingham and Janet Chapman of Southfield. Program will include the Overture from "Il Re Pastore", Nutcracker Suite, Divertissement, Italian

Symphony, Pelleas and Melisande Suite, Waltz of the Hours from "Coppelia", and Roumanian Rhapsody. Admission tickets for this particular concert may be purchased at Grinnell's in Birmingham or at the box office at the auditorium on the afternoon of the concert. This is the only concert of the season for which admissions are sold. All other concerts are on annual subscription basis. Subscription tickets admit members also to this concert.

Tiara of Seed Pearls Accents Bridal Garb

Gowned in white chantilly lace and tulle over satin, Janet Lou Harris became the bride of Brian Robert, Connolly on November 23 in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie O. Harris of Adrian.

The Rev. Raymond G. Taylor performed the 4:30 o'clock ceremony before an open fireplace, which was adorned with pink and white flowers and lighted candles.

THE BRIDEGROOM is the son of Will H. Connolly of Stratford lane, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Jane Stuyvesant of Lake Geneva, Wis.

The bride's gown featured a fitted bodice styled with a Queen Anne collar and long sleeves, and the floor length bouffant skirt was fashioned with insets of lace panels in front and back.

She wore an heirloom cameo necklace belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Grover Graham. A tiara of sequins and pearls secured her fingertip veil of imported French illusion and she carried a modernistic bouquet of white carnations.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. James Tornow of Angola, Ind., a cousin, who was the matron of honor. She wore a princess style pink dress with white polka dots featuring a corrugated rope neckline and a pink bow in the back.

HER ACCESSORIES were white and she carried a modernistic hand bouquet of pink carnations, similar to that of the bride. A short veil fell from a matching pink tiara.

Bernard Comisar of Adrian attended the bridegroom as best man. A reception for about 100 guests was immediately after the ceremony at the Harris home.

Mr. and Mrs. Connolly are traveling.

SOCIETY

Delta Zeta's Christmas Party

Alumnae of Oakland Group 1, Delta Zeta sorority, met yesterday afternoon to bring gifts to the patient sponsored by the local group.

Victim of Hansen's disease, or leprosy as it is more commonly called, the patient has been the recipient of various gifts and remembrances which are sent to him from time to time at the government hospital especially equipped to care for sufferers of the little-understood ailment.

Located at Carville, La., the hospital has been a project of special interest as a philanthropy for the sorority's two local groups of alumnae.

Hostess was Mrs. Francis Lutze at her home on Amherst. Plans are being made for a gourmet buffet in January, at which time alumnae will bring their own special food creations. Guests and alumnae are to hear a special speaker on unusual cookery following the serving of the buffet luncheon.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Plans Yule Party

The afternoon and evening group of Kappa Kappa Gamma will meet for a Christmas party on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Peter W. Decker, 3210 Roosevelt, Southfield, at 8 p.m. Members will bring gifts to be distributed at Christmas to older boys and girls at Oakland County Children's home.
