Charles Eberhards Spent Thanksgiving in Miami

Many North Adams families traveled out of the state to spend their Thanksgiving holiday, while others entertained at gatherings in their homes.

The Charles Eberhards of Hylane drive spent Thanksgiving week in Miami, Fla., making their headquarters at the Fountainbleu. While Eberhard attended the National Association of Independent Insurers convention, Mrs. Eberhard enjoyed touring the shops and scenic spots. The pleasant trip will be remembered for a second reason as it was there they celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

The Clarence Bundy family of Rouge circle spent the Thanksgiving weekend with relatives in Cleveland, Ohio. They were hosts of Bundy's sister and family, the Joseph Condella, and visited the Harlan Robinsons.

The C. Jack Pistor family of Westview drive motored to Cincinnati, Ohio, to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with Mrs. Pistor's mother, Mrs. W. H. Love, who also visited C. H. Pistor, Pistor's father.

Harry Lee of Cincinnati, Ohio, arrived at the Butterfield Hill drive home of Roger Bell and his parents, the Michael Bells, to spend Thanksgiving Day and the weekend. Harry was formerly of Birmingham until a year ago. The boys attended Birmingham high together.

The Clifford Mezaya of Oakhill drive had Commander Robert Riley of the U.S. Navy Air Corps as their houseguest over the weekend. The Commander and Mezaya were stationed together during the last war. On the Friday evening the Mezaya introduced their guest to friends at a "cocktail and casserole" party. Many of the guests were of the Thorndown area.

The David Gleffes of Northover road and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Horning of Birmingham, parents of Mrs. Gleffes, enjoyed cocktails at the Bloomfield Hills Open Hunt club before returning to the Gleffes for their traditional Thanksgiving Day dinner.

The Marc Hagerman family spent Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Hagerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. MacArthur of Flint, Mich. While there they attended the Flint Central high school football game.

Houseguests arriving on Friday at the Ralph Richardson home on Weatherlane drive were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tremaine of Darien, Conn., relatives of Mrs. Richardson. Tremaine will stay the weekend and Mrs. Tremaine will stay on for a week's visit.

Friends gathered at the Pine Hill drive home of Mrs. Louis Deak, Jr., on Monday morning to make Christmas corsages that will later be given to patients at the Pontiac hospital.

The workers included Mrs. Harry Pinson, Mrs. George Robb, Mrs. Fred Jonnett, Mrs. Donald Richardson and Mrs. Richard Smith.

Many residents of the North Adams area are turning into the Hickory Heights drive home of Mrs. Fred Olivers when they are Christmas shopping for those special eye-appealing gifts. The array of gifts in fells, boys, bells and beads are made by Mrs. Olivers' mother, Mrs. Lillian Giffin, and include, janny seat covers.
