

Cocktail Parties Before Benefit Show

The Junior Guild of Providence hospital will take over the Shubert theater for the performance of "Sunrise at Campa-bello" on Jan. 4. Mrs. Clyde H. Mulhern and Mrs. John Raymond, both of the Birmingham area, have been especially busy. Mrs. Mulhern is telephone committee chairman and Mrs. Raymond is assisting her.

Early reservations have been turned in by Dr. and Mrs. Harold E. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. James P. Pangel, the Joseph Filonovitzs of Birmingham and the John Blacks of Foxcroft.

COCKTAIL guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Perry are the John Winstons and the John McClustons of Birmingham and the Russell Links of Troy.

The Clyde Mulherns and the Jack Wards are planning an after theater supper for 20 guests and the John Raymonds will be joined at the theater by 20 friends.
