Parties Precede Benefit Dance

Many parties preceded the Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae dance Saturday night at Orchard Lake country club, which benefited the Birmingham association for Handicapped Children.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Florez and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stubbs entertained for cocktails and dinner for their guests, the Myron Snyder, the Richard Scales, the Preston Weiss and the C. L. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Van Meter of Franklin Village gave a cocktail party and their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Judge, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schott, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hutor, Mr. and Mrs. Donald French and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Macdonald.

Another group gathered at the Ford M. Brooks' home in Bloomfield Hills, while still another at the Charles J. Meekes.

The John Roehms entertained their post-luck party the same evening for cocktails and dinner. Their guests included the William R. Blackmans, the Paul MacKenzie, the Ralph Zimmermans and the Donald Outman.

The Howard Linders' guest list included Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodyear, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Begle and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hopkins.

G. ROBERT KOOPMAN
Vaughan PTO February Meeting In Panel Form

"Are We Cheating Our Children" will be the Vaughn PTO's Feb. 17th program in panel form. Eugene L. Johnson, superintendent of Bloomfield Hills schools, will explore the goals and needs of citizenship education from the viewpoint of the community, school, business and industry.

Robert Koopman, associate superintendent of Michigan State department of public instruction, will lead the panel with the assistance of Mrs. Florence Cleary, chairman of the library education department at Wayne, and Karl E. Scott, Ford Motor company executive and member of Bloomfield board of education.

Subjects to be discussed include "The School's Goals in Citizenship Education," "What Are the Community Goals in Citizenship Education" and "What Are the Citizenship Attitudes and Attributes Sought by Business and Industry in Its Employees?"

Hickory Grove School Honors Boy Scout Month

Boy Scouts of Troop B-19 will hold the stage at the February meeting of the Hickory Grove School PTA, at 8 o'clock tonight.

Following the presenting of the colors by members of the troop, Charles Robinson, Institutional representative, will describe the activities and projects of the troop, and introduce Scoutmaster George Edgington.

Scouts will demonstrate a troop meeting-in-miniature, doing hand-axes, fire building, knots, and other basic skills of scouting.

The Court of Honor will be held at this time so that PTA members can witness this badge-awarding ceremony. Assistant Scoutmaster Arliss Whiteside will conduct this portion of the program. A representative of the Oakland Council will present the troop charter to Mr. Robinson.

Other members of the troop committee of B-19 are John Conde, chairman; Robert Boarden, secretary; treasurer; Frank Moncher, outdoor activities; and Walter Wharton, advancement.

After a Southern honeymoon, the couple plan to reside in Parma, Ohio.

Former Resident Married In Ohio

Adele Morley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Morley of Mansfield, Ohio, formerly of Birmingham, and Bloomfield Hills, became the bride of Allen Carl Brettinger of Heron, Ohio, Saturday.

The noon wedding took place at the Morley's "Holiday Farm" for the immediate families and close friends.

Lynn Morley was her sister's only attendant and Michael Zullo, Allen's roommate at Ohio State, was best man.

Attending the wedding from Birmingham were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. J. Morrison Taylor and son, James, Jr.
