Have You Met . . .

The new residents of Cambridge village, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harley of 2718 Red Leaf line? The Harleys are former residents of Detroit and Royal Oak. Harley is employed with Chevrolet Gear and Axle in Detroit. He is interested in golf and active in the Masons and Shriners. Mrs. Harley is connected with Eastern Star. The Harleys have one son, Ronald, a resident of Berkeley, and a granddaughter, Susan, 17 months old.

Birthday Dinner Honors Friend

CRANBROOK VILLAGE—Mrs. Alex Sinclair of Rock Creek drive gave a dinner in honor of the birthday of a close friend, Miss Toni Anisjak of Detroit. Among the guests was Harry Radtke.

A large gathering of friends in the evening further celebrated the occasion.

Lathrup Social Briefs

Enjoying a weekend of winter sports were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Viale of Lathrup street and daughter, Susie and Joanne. Going to an inn and state park near Angola, Ind., the Viales got in some tobogganing and enjoyed a square dance at the inn which included the entire family.

Mrs. John Fox of Woodworth Way recently enjoyed a 10-day trip to Montreal where she visited her mother and dad, Dr. and Mrs. Jules Mercier.

The Doug Lambourns of E. California drive attended a dance given by U. of D. alumni at the Lathrup Quarter Feb. 7. Approximately 500 couples attended the affair which is an annual event given each February.

Children baptized at St. Bede's church Feb. 2 were Carrie Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Timothy Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen MacEachern and Michael Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Hiron.

When Felecia Hoover celebrated her 21st birthday recently, her parents, the Carlisle Hoovers, invited a few of her close friends to help celebrate the occasion at a dinner party at Dearborn Inn.

Then a birthday present, and because she had two weeks between semesters at Mercy School of Nursing, and because she had just finished her psychiatric training in Ann Arbor, Felecia was given two weeks in Florida. Twenty-one, a first plane trip, a first trip to Florida—that birthday got rave notices.
