POLIO NOT YET WHIPPED!

Nearly forty million Americans under forty years of age have had no vaccine and over forty million have not completed their series of three doses. Polio virus is still widespread. An epidemic may break out any time, any place, because the vaccine protects only those who receive it. If you or members of your family have not been immunized—see your physician now. Don't gamble with your health. Be immunized!

Graceland-Derby Newcomers to Area Are Mr. and Mrs. Euel Vines

Welcomed newcomers to 1600 Derby are Mr. and Mrs. Euel Vines and children June, 10, and Euel, Jr., 7, formerly of Birmingham, Ala. and the Graceland Terraces.

Vines is associated with Kappers Co., a district sales manager. He attended the University of Alabama and was affiliated with Delta Sigma fraternity. He has a great interest in tennis as an invigorating pastime.

Mrs. Vines is a graduate of William and Mary college in Williamsburg, Va. Her time now is spent working with the brownie and is co-leader of troop 999. She is looking forward to cub scout work next year.

Edgar, Mrs. John Lahl, Mrs. William Mueller and Mrs. John Shuler. The ladies presented Mrs. Cox with a gift to remember them by.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Horton II, 1751 Graceland, proudly announce the arrival of a son, Leonard Wirtley III, born Jan. 22.

Celebrating their 13th anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon and Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle enjoyed cocktails and dinner at the latter home recently.

The two couples celebrated the occasion by joining Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bickner, also celebrating their wedding anniversary later in the week, for dining and dancing at one of the local restaurants.

Mrs. John L. Ward, Jr., 1689 Witherbee, was hostess for her monthly bridge club recently. Seated at the two tables were Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Grandville Barker, Mrs. Robert Dittler, Mrs. Donald Hibbert and Mrs. Robert Freeman.

One of the many bridge groups in Troyton Manor met recently at the home of Mrs. Wright Coulson, 1804 Witherbee.

Members included Mrs. Donald Nanny, Mrs. Robert Swanson, Mrs. Raymond Howard, Mrs. James Sowers, Mrs. George McUTCHEON and Mrs. Maurice Beaumann.

The need for a little relaxation after strenuous hours of practice prompted Miss Jackie Horn to invite fellow cast members from the ice skating show which was to have been held last Sunday at Elm Park, to her home for pizza and hot chocolate. Unfortunately the show had to be postponed because of freezing temperatures.

Jackie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Horn of 1990 Witherbee.

JOYCE KAROL Couple Sets June Altar Date

At a family dinner party on St. Valentine's Day, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Karol of Detroit, announced the betrothal of their daughter, Joyce Mae, 17, to Frank Moelich, son of Mrs. E. F. Moelich of Kenmore, N. Y., and the late Mr. Moelich.

The bride-elect attended St. Joseph's Academy in Adrian, and graduated from Wayne State university where she was a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron sorority. She is now a Home Service Advisor at the Detroit Edison company.

Her fiancé attended Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, N. Y., where he studied industrial design and was a member of Delta Gamma Theta fraternity. Presently he resides at The Fox and Hounds Inn, Bloomfield Hills, and is a member of the Harley Earl, Inc., design staff.

A June 14th altar date is scheduled.

Participants In Annual Nurses' Meeting

Mrs. Edward S. Wellock, chairman of the steering committee of the Home Care demonstration gave a report of the progress made in the second year of the demonstration at the Visiting Nurse Association's 50th annual meeting and luncheon in Detroit.

The program also consisted of skits portraying aspects of the association's work with patients and their families. Local board members participating were Mrs. John B. Carrington, Mrs. Clark Ward, Mrs. Donald Campbell and Mrs. George Romney.

Alpha Mu Bridge Benefits DARC

Xi Alpha Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority is sponsoring a benefit bridge Feb. 26 to raise funds for the Detroit Association for Retarded Children. The evening event will be at Northland hospitality house.

As an added feature, Mary Ellen Gladden, color consultant of Bell Telephone Co., will present a short program on "Color Comes Calling." Alyce Kanouse is ways and means chairman.
