

Film to Depict Seed Heritage

WESTCHESTER — Mrs. George Clark, 274 Highland, will be hostess to the Westchester branch of the WNFPA Feb. 24 at 8 p.m. A colored film, "Bountiful Heritage," from a seed company will be shown, depicting how the performance of flower and vegetable seeds are dependent on scientific breeding and careful harvesting for continuous quality control. Assisting as co-hostesses are Mrs. Elmer Ansel and Mrs. Perry Rothman. An invitation to newcomers to join is extended by Mrs. Earl J. Potter, branch president.

A breath of spring was felt in the Westchester village last week when the spring project committee from the WNFPA met in the home of Mrs. Herbert Graebner to discuss the coming flowering crab tree sale in May.

Serving on the committee for the money raising project are Mrs. Francis Wilhelm, Mrs. Earl J. Potter, Mrs. C. Kenneth Quimette and Mrs. Robert Batchelor.

Danger Stressed On Experimenting With Rockets

VALLEY WOODS — The dangers of allowing young people to experiment with amateur rockets was emphasized to parents attending the February PTA meeting at Valley Woods school Monday evening.

Lowell Lawrence, chief of the Redstone Missile project spoke in the absence of the scheduled speaker.

A gift of $100 from the Valley Woods Women's association to be used for the purchase of books in the school library, was presented by Duane Fisher, Valley Woods principle, by Mrs. Charles Deuel and Mrs. Kenneth Kittle, president and past association president.

Robert Fisher, safety chairman, urged all parents to back the bill now in legislation, that all cars in either direction must stop for school buses. Individual letters sent to L. Harvey Lodge, state senator for Oakland County, were requested.

Assisting Mrs. Monty Miller on the social committee were Mrs. Mary second grade room mothers, Mrs. Stuart Rogers, Mrs. John Charles, Mrs. Karl Aronson and Mrs. Ken Kittle.

Lathrup Social Briefs

The Ed Viales of Lathrup street spent a most enjoyable week entertaining a guest, John Anderson, from Ashby de la Zouch, a town near Birmingham, England. Anderson was here to study the Detroit Coil Co. of Ferndale, where Viales is employed.

Anderson, being very interested in the way Americans live, was impressed with the way American people get along with their automobiles. He attended the square dance at the Community Congregational church in Lathrup, and was a guest of honor at Susie Viales' Valentine party where the "sloppy joes" and the informal atmosphere impressed him.

Anderson stated he hopes to make a return trip to the States in the very near future, bringing his wife along, and perhaps staying for a longer length of time.

Mark Dulerian is the newest arrival to the Mithran Dulerian family of Blackstone street in Lathrup. Mark arrived Jan. 29. Brother, Jimmy, is now 2½.

Susie Viales' supper and Valentine party was enjoyed by several of her friends. The girls enjoying the dancing, games and singing were: Sally Haener, Mrs. A. Phillips, Ann Tuynman, Carole Russell, Sharon Malover, Sylvia Jostrowski and Kathy Osborne.

Children baptized at St. Bede's church Feb. 9 were Robert Sherman, son of Raymond and Janette Pilgrim and Kimberly Ann, daughter of Frank and Regene Ryan.

Mrs. H. L. Waha Hosts Shower

OAKLAND HILLS SUBDIVISION — Mrs. H. L. Waha of 13 Mile road recently had a bridal shower for her niece, now Mrs. Jerry Bress of Detroit. Twenty-two ladies attended.

Pink carnations around a fountain centerpiece was the focal point of the gaily decorated table. The cake was covered with pink roses with a wedding bell in the center.

The Waha's son, Bruce L., was recently engaged to Miss Joan Moir of Detroit. Miss Moir is a teacher at Redford high school in Detroit. The wedding will take place in June.

Family Gather For Anniversary

BERKSHIRES — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyajian of Jackson Park drive entertained in honor of Mrs. Boyajian's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Topalian's 45th wedding anniversary. The immediate family including nine grandchildren and one great grandchild, gathered Saturday evening for a dinner party.

Another reason for the celebration was the reunion of an aunt, Mrs. Annie Serapogian of Constantinople, Turkey, who the senior family had not seen for 45 years.

Serapogian, who has been visiting in a nursing home, was able to get a 3 months extension for the affair.

A miniature wedding cake centered the table that was done in a Valentine motif.

Group Decorate Cakes for Children

SOUTH BERKSHIRE — Under the supervision of Mrs. Victor Zaitz, chairman of the teenage youth group, individual heart-shaped cakes were decorated for the Baptist Children's home located at Thurston Mile and Greenfield roads.

Decorating the cakes with fruits and flowers. Thursday after school, a group of girls, including Mrs. Zaitz, decorated cakes for the Baptist Children's home.

In the evening Mrs. Zaitz and the girls visited the home and presented the youngsters with personal valentines and cakes.

Ice Skating Party Hosted by Weiners

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — On Sunday afternoon, South Berkshire youngsters in the under 12 age group and their parents defied the winter elements and gathered for a skating party at the pond on the grounds of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Weiner's home on Lathrup drive.

Charcoal grills laden with sizzling hot dogs and jars of hot beverages helped to fortify skating enthusiasts.

Mothers Complete Plans for Dinner

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — Mothers of club members did 7½ hours of work with den mother, Mrs. Harold Gaster at her Bermuda lane home Monday afternoon, to plan the menu and complete plans for the Blue and Gold dinner Thursday at Southfield 10 school.

After school the clubs met at Mrs. Gaster's home to start paper mache totem poles for their March theme project.

Surprise Shower Honors Mrs. Long

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — Mrs. Al Zimanski entertained the South Berkshire Women's youth committee Tuesday evening at her Stellar drive home.

A skating party, recreational projects and summer activities were discussed.

Mrs. John Long, chairman, was pleasantly surprised to learn the meeting was primarily arranged as a surprise stork shower in her honor.

Molded ice cream storks, and roses with a baby face imprinted on top were served with fancy cup cakes decorated with frosted baby bunnies and rosettes.

Present were Mrs. Leo Vigil, Mrs. Lee Patti, Mrs. Robert Gladfelter, Mrs. Alexander Neal, Mrs. Melvin Groves, Mrs. William Harrison, Mrs. Nelson Mizdian, Mrs. Paul McGarity, Mrs. Frank Lewandowski, Mrs. Thomas Carlson and Mrs. Charles Young.

Valentines Provide Party Background

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — Valentine accents provided the background for the H-F-T Teen club Valentine dance party Saturday evening at the home of Donna Febraro on Vernon drive.

Members and guests danced and refreshments prepared by the young members in the club.

The word tornado is derived from the Spanish "tornado," meaning return.

Club Welcomes New Members

LATHRUP — New members welcomed into the Lathrup Woman's club in February were Mrs. Oscar Sarjanian, Mrs. C. J. Lawson, Mrs. Ernest Hodas, Mrs. E. J. Naundts, Mrs. Oscar Peterson, Mrs. John Shales, Mrs. Donald M. Hunter, Mrs. Adam Malone and Mrs. J. M. Luckas.
