Scout Dad's 'Hush Puppies' Don't Sell

Twelve boys and four fathers from Boy Scout troop B-25 braved the wintry weather for an all-day outing at the Bald mountain recreation area last Saturday. In addition to bobbleheading and hiking, several scouts passed their cooking tests despite the handicap of trying to build a fire without paper during a snowfall.

Menus ranged from baked apples and pancakes to black eye peas and "hush puppies." The latter, prepared by one of the fathers, couldn't be "sold" to some of the boys.
