A Spartan lot! Guests of the Lloyd McKinney encountered the snow-bound heights to their hill-top house with fortitude Saturday night.

Deep drifts made the incline impassable and everybody had to walk from the road, carrying card tables and other equipment for the winter reunion of Mrs. McKinney's sorority alumnae.

The conquered slopes then became the focal point of entertainment and there were hours of tologganning in the cold crisp night. Square dancing topped off the evening for the 20 who came.

The McKinneys will also host about 16 guests Feb. 28 at a desert party preceding the I.T.A. square dance at the school.

Novice skiers, the George Al. managers of Whitley road and the Robert Hampsons of Woodlark, returned Sunday from a week attending a ski school at Otsego.

Classroom regimentation, part of the orientation program, gave the two couples some pretty historical moments as they valiantly struggled into layers of gear for the sub-zero temperatures (26 to 28 below) and cheerfully reported for scheduled instruction.

Last spring's trip to Europe is still going strong at the James Gillens. Their collection of 300 colored slides have been the high point of a series of Saturday night gatherings at their Wellington road home.

Over the months, almost all their friends have been taken on a personally conducted arm-chair tour with Jim as the head guide and moderator.

The Florida chamber of commerce might do well to consider Andrew Jokinens of N. Greenbriar road for their public relations department.

Home after almost a month of travel, the Jokinens are content that they had good weather while near Silver Springs, Sarasota and Venice. Maybe it was 28 in the mornings, sometimes, but by afternoon readings would be around 75, and you really can't complain with that, says Jokinens.

Before Florida, however, the Jokinens went to Boston to visit son David and his wife, David is taking graduate work at MIT and Harvard, his bride is also furthering her studies.

After Boston, came a visit to Washington, D. C. to visit relatives.

The drive home through icy, mountainous country in Tennessee was the only truly unpleasant experience, they report.

South Dakota pleasant, hugged last fall by Stan Hunter, will be the main course at a dinner party for the only truly unpleasant experience, they report.

About 25 guests are expected Saturday night, well for Hunter's marksmanship.

3 Villages Set Filing Deadline

FRANKLIN — The three incorporated villages of Franklin, Woodcreek Farms and Bingham Farms have set Feb. 24 at noon as the final time for filing of petitions for candidates in the March 10 elections.

Petitions and signed acceptances must be in the hands of each village clerk by the Monday noon deadline.

In Bingham Farms, village clerk, Mrs. Jessie Colwell will receive signed petitions at her home, 32834 Bingham lane.

Petitions for Franklin candidates will be received by clerk Mrs. Faye Hark in temporary village offices in the rear of the Franklin Drug store. Arthur Busch, Woodcreek Farms clerk, will accept petitions at his home, 25706 Millbrook road.

For the Don Watkins of W. 11 Mile road, Tuesday night, Wednesday they were invited out to dinner for the evening with the Jack Whittings but instead, their neighbors descended, each couple bringing party food with them and three silver dollars, to bid the young family fond farewell as they leave for about six months in Florida.

Scouts Celebrate Birthday Dinner

FRANKLIN — Cub scouts of pack B-11 and their parents will have their annual Blue and Gold birthday dinner at Franklin school Feb. 27 at 6:30 p.m.

Each den has worked out its own menu and table arrangement.

Henry Bemis and Dan Adams of the district scouting office will be on hand to present the year's charter. Awards and group singing will be on the program with the usual den skit and ceremonies.

Franklin Plans Square Dance

FRANKLIN — It's been some time since Franklin has had a community-wide square dance, so I.T.A. officers are confident that there will be a good response for their Feb. 28 square dance plans.

Mrs. Bert Coburn, ticket chairman, has 400 tickets to distribute. All the proceeds will go toward the purchase of additional books but instead, their neighbors descended, each couple bringing party food with them and three silver dollars, to bid the young family fond farewell as they leave for about six months in Florida.

Have You Met . . .

Wallace and Marion Barringer of Horseshoe road in Franklin? A great big cake from welcoming neighbors greeted them as they moved in Saturday. They have five children, Robert, 12, in the seventh grade at Derby; Cheryl, 10, a fourth grader at Franklin school; Linda, 6, in kindergarten; David, 3, and Julie, 1. Here from Detroit and very much interested in both boy and girl scout work, the Barringers are looking forward to activities in the community. Barringer is office manager for the George H. Hedquist Lumber Co.

White maline encircling a heart filled with pink carnations formed the table decorations for a bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Wilfred Dierlamm Tuesday at her home on Valley Spring drive. Each guest received an individual snifter glass containing a rosebud.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Peterson hosted a cocktail and dinner party Saturday night. Guests who enjoyed cards before a card fire in the recreation room were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dierlamm and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaPlante.

Mrs. L. A. Habrie entertained the Meadowlake bridge club today at her home on Valley Spring drive. Following desert, bridge was enjoyed by Mrs. James Loupe, Mrs. Harry O'Droski, Mrs. Edward Kobek, Mrs. Axel Peterson, Mrs. Wendell Moore, Mrs. John Holmes and Mrs. Maxwell Casey.

An afternoon of tologganning followed by dinner was enjoyed by guests of the Richard Birkbards on Sunday.

Braving the nippy weather for this popular outdoor sport were the Thomas Morans, Jim Huddleston, Jack Teahan and Bud Usack.

Auxiliary Completes Plans for Luncheon

MEADOWLAKE—The Women's auxiliary of the Meadowlake Farms Civic association have completed plans for a fashion show and luncheon at Devon Gabies, March 7 at noon.

Bridge will follow the luncheon. There will be a prize for each table.

Anyone interested in obtaining tickets may contact Mrs. James Loupe, Mrs. L. A. Habrie, or Mrs. Walter Gerick.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ranker left recently for Florida in search of that elusive warm weather.

Mrs. Ernest Murray, with daughters, Connie and Linda, is vacationing in Sarasota where she expects to spend the next two months.

The Kenneth Quicks returned Wednesday from a Florida vacation.

Among the hardy souls that are taking advantage of the continued cold spell are Mr. and Mrs. Otto Winkelmann who spend much of their leisure time on the slopes at Mt. Holly.

Ray Eiler and John Phelps, Walnut Lake ice fishing enthusiasts, have 15 sizable pike to their credit.

Paul and Doug Norland can be found after school tologganning down neighboring hills or skating on Walnut Lake.

Mt. Holly Ski Area

FACILITIES

This year, the entire ski area has been redesigned to meet the increased need of beginning and intermediate skiers. Thousands of yards of earth have been moved to make the slopes longer, wider, smoother... and completely safe. The beginner's area, with its easy slope and special low-mowing rope tow, is among the best to be found in the country. All slopes are serviced with electrically powered rope tows and are fully illuminated for night skiing. No matter what the weather, scientific snow making equipment is always on hand to insure uniform, top-notch conditions for a minimum of 100 days each season.

LODGE and RESTAURANT
Hot drinks and food are served throughout the day and evening.
