'Gay '20's' Costume Party Hosted by Hollingsheads

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Straight of Broadway boulevard were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hollingshead of Argyle in Birmingham at a "Gay '20's" costume party Saturday evening. The party was for the many friends of the Richard Straight family, who are now of Winthrop, Birmingham, to bid them farewell before they move to Cleveland, Ohio, to make their home.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Comiskey of Broadway boulevard Friday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elder of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kelly of Fairview drive, Birmingham.

Following cocktails at home, they will go to the HAC for dinner and enjoy the opening night of the new floor show at the club.

When you are six, it's high time you take matters in your own hands. At least that was the thinking of Tony Crocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orono Charles Crocker of Broadway boulevard when, without parent consultation, he apparently invited many friends to help him celebrate his birthday.

Due to his surprise, mother and dad had different plans. The Crockers and children, Tony and Penny, will leave March 19 for three weeks in Florida on the spring vacation time of Brookside school where the children are students.

While in Florida, at the Yankee Clipper hotel, they will celebrate Tony's birthday with his guests being the many friends from Brookside who will also be vacationing there.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Mear of Broadway boulevard entertained 18 friends at cocktails in their new home Saturday evening preceding the Winter club dinner dance at Bloomfield Hills country club.

Last year's too dance for the entire family, proved to be such a success at Forest Lake country club that the second one will be given this Sunday afternoon. There will be champagne for adults and a soda bar for the kids. All will dance to the same band.

Some of the families from Bloomfield Village who will be there will be Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hearn of Glenview road and their children, Carolyn, Jeff, George and SueAnne, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dietrich and son, Scott and daughter, Joan of Broadway boulevard.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawkins and daughters, Linda and Vicky, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Horner of Hupp Cross and sons, Michael and Bill and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curry and son, Chase and daughter, Cynthia of Broadway boulevard.

The Northside book review group of Birmingham AAUW met Monday at the home of Mrs. Maurice P. Smith of Burstone place.

Co-hostesses for the salad luncheon were Helen Bryant and Florence Sargent.

A review of the book "From Lexington to Liberty" was presented by Mrs. John U. Holmes.
