New Bill Poses

Threat to Rights

Of State Hunters A new bill just introduced in the state legislature poses what may be the gravest threat to the rights of Michi-gan's sportsmen in many years.

The proposal would give the boards of trustees of individual townships the right to ban hunting in all or any part of a township. Such bans now require state legislative action.

22 to 18, at intermission. The Troy lead was 31 to 23 at the close of the third period.

No Troy hoopster was able to hit double figures, with vitational, 56 to 35 Friday night to Indianapolis Park and Wayne Figley and Dick Harris sparking the Colt cause with 61 to 33 Saturday to Grosse Pointe university.
