B'ham JA Firm Donates Money To Fund Campaign

Tri-Plex products, a miniature piano achievement firm in Birmingham, has contributed $22 to JA's 1958 fund campaign which ended today.

Counselled by executives from MacKinnon, John & Adams, Bloomfield Hills advertising agency, Tri-Plex products is the only JA miniature piano firm to contribute to the current fund drive.

The company's first product was made of styrofoam, an expanded polystyrene manufactured by Dow Chemical Co. It now donated the material to Tri-Plex products.

BECAUSE subsidization is not allowed by JA, this small Birmingham firm donated $22—the fair market value of the material received—to Junior Achievement of southeastern Michigan.
