Silver parents are asked to provide their own dishes and silver and parents should bring coffee in thermos jars.

Replace Banquet With Scout Rally

FRANKLIN—Another Franklin tradition has passed on in the wake of the community's growth.

The annual Juliette Low birthday dinner, generally celebrated by a full banquet type dinner for girl scouts and their mothers, will be replaced this year by a rally on March 7.

The rally will include all brownies and girl scout units and will be a program of skits by each troop, dramatizing the theme "You Can Depend On Her."

Both parents of each girl will be invited as guests for the program beginning at 7:30 at the Franklin school. Mrs. Edward Green, president of the WSCS, sponsoring organization, will cut the traditional birthday cake.

Mrs. Robert Wickett is chairman of the rally and Mrs. Harlow Bates will assist her.

The following Sunday has been designated as Girl Scout Sunday and a special tribute to the girl scouting movement has been planned by Rev. Robert Searls of the Franklin Community Church. A color guard of Franklin girl scouts will participate in the service.

Fraternity Pledge

FRANKLIN — Robert W. Hinman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hinman of Wellington, is a pledge of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity at Michigan State university.

Franklin Social Briefs

Although the Harlow Bates are devoted Franklin Players members, they are equally as devoted to the Dearborn Players guild where they have belonged for years.

This was plainly evident Sunday night when they entertained 10 Franklin couples for supper at their 12 Mile road home and to treat them to a performance of the Dearborn group's presentation of the "Rainmaker."

There was plenty of snow for tobogganing in Indiana last week-end, the "Bugs Days" in New Greenbrier can testify. Returning for a short holiday at their favorite spot, the Portofortwaine inn, the boys and daughter, Robin experienced feelings of thrills on the hooter slopes.

John Clements, affectionately called "Uncle John" by residents in the heart of Franklin, has finally had to concede to his 80 years and give up home-keeping for himself. John was admitted to the Oakland county convalescent home last Friday.

Unknown to most of Franklin's current residents, John lived by himself in a little shanty on Bowden road, preferring the life of a hermit and independence to the more comfortable lives of his neighbors.

While Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Anderson, residents of Florida, their home on 13 Mile road is offering a temporary home to the Junior Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Anderson. They have been living in California this past year.

Formerly of Beverly Hills, now Westwood, the Andersons have enrolled their children, Linda and Larry, in Franklin school. Ten-month-old March, born in California, will not remember their home in the foothills of the San Gabriel mountains.

Monthly Parties Set for Children

FRANKLIN—Planning monthly birthday parties for the 16 youngsters in the Labaree cottage at the St. Vincent-Sarah Fisher home is the new project for Franklin girl scout troop 747.

Last Saturday, the Adventurers patrol with Teddy Young, Diane Janice, Barbara Holmes and Jane Guest arrived at the home to celebrate with all the trimmings for the children who had a birthday in February.

The scouts brought paper hats, two large homemade cakes, which they baked and decorated themselves and dixie cups of ice cream. The party included games which lasted an hour after which the scouts and their leaders, Mrs. Edgar Guest, Jr., and Mrs. Carl Kuhnke, were invited to stay for lunch at the institution.

Each patrol in the troop will have a similar birthday party every month with the help of Mrs. Frankmund Beck, mother in charge of the birthday program. Nancy Hoek is responsible for seeing that birthday cards are sent on the day of each birthday in the cottage.

Japan is Lenten Theme for March

FRANKLIN—"Japan, the Cross and Christ" will be the subject for this year's Lenten study course March, studies during the month of March.

Mrs. Charles Clark is chairman of this year's Lenten study course for Franklin Community church. The first meeting will be March 4 in the committee room at 10 a.m. Coffee and coffee cake will be served at the beginning of each session.

Mrs. Robert Searls will conduct the first meeting and Mrs. Harlow Bates will show slides taken in Japan and Korea when her husband was stationed with the air force.

On March 11, Mrs. Robert Swift will present a book review of "Southerly the Sun" by Mrs. Roy Troutman to offer the devotion.

Mrs. Gerald Wright and Mrs. E. W. Mill of Birmingham will discuss three books on the subject of Japan and the work of missionaries at the March 18 meeting.

Scouts Campout At State Park

FRANKLIN—Nature hikes, advancement, ice fishing and skating will keep troop B-11 boy scouts busy on their campout at Sleeper State park this weekend.

Friday explorers scout will leave camp after school to prepare the camp site for other troop members which will be arriving Saturday morning.

Scouts are urged to meet at 8 a.m. on Saturday in front of the Franklin Community church. The scouts will sleep in cabins and have a picnic. The Scouts are requested to bring only their bed rolls or blankets, plenty of warm clothing, fishing poles, ice skates and cameras.

Donald Tracy, assistant scoutmaster, is in charge of the campout.

Calendars should be circled for March 28 when troop B-11 will hold a pancake supper at the church. Norman Kriesler, also on the scoutmaster's staff, is making arrangements.

Scouts Visit Camp Narrin

FRANKLIN—Mild weather will be welcome this weekend by girl scout troop 747 for they have scheduled a camping trip to Camp Narrin.

Leaving Friday night and returning on Sunday afternoon, the troop will work on the campcraft proficiency badge, practice their Juliette Low birthday skit and work on their display for the district's "My Troop" day.

Carden Hosts Civic Group

WOODCREEK FARMS — The monthly meeting of the Woodcreek Civic association will be tonight at the home of Edward Carden, 2925 11 Mile, at 8:30 p.m.

The Woodcreek Women's association will have their next meeting, March 4 at the home of Mrs. Frank V. Jensen, 30609 Inkster. A nominating committee for the annual election will be appointed and the group will also sew on cancer pads.

Swifts Return From Island Trip

WOODCREEK FARMS — Air travel made it possible for the Robert Swifts of Westbrook road to cover the many miles from here to Jamaica and a dozen island stops in 14 days, with time to spare to swim, shop and tans.

In Jamaica they stayed at Ochoa located on the north shore where the Sans Souci hotel made pleasant headquarters. They visited Montego bay, took the bamboo raft trip down the Rio Grande river at Port Antonio, saw 150 different ferns growing from the rock formations in the Fern Gully, visited the famous Hope gardens at Kingston, where they also shopped and vacationed.

Among other places of interest the Swifts touched were Puerto Rico, Port O. Price, Haiti and beautiful San Juan.

Temperatures in the 80's, although frequent rains and amusement was provided once by the natives who shivered when temperatures dropped to 70 one day.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Ravensberg of E. Dartmoor road announce the birth of a son, William Scott, Feb. 19.

Davis Receives 2-Week Dream Trip

WOODCREEK FARMS — When James Davis of Wellington road became an honorary member of the Propeller club, an organization for men in the shipping industry, he had no clear vision what his reward would be.

Two weeks ago the club awarded him a dream trip for two to Nassau, or Bermuda, or Cuba, or Mexico or Miami.

So, with the Davis children away at school, Mr. and Mrs. Davis have been pouring over travel folders, planning to cash in on their good fortune sometime in May. Nassau holds the most appeal for the moment.

Announce Plans For Saddle Club

WALNUT LAKE—Plans for a club of enthusiastic horse owners interested in training their mounts for horse shows and rodeos has been announced by Jon Nagelvoort, 187 Lake Pine.

The club, which will be known as the Walnut Lake Saddle club, will be open to boys and will meet in the corral on the Nagelvoort property.

Supervised campouts are also on the agenda. Boys interested in this project may call Jon Nagelvoort.

'Table Settings' Theme of Meeting

MEADOWLAKE—The March 3 meeting of the Meadowlake branch of the WNFGA will be at the home of Mrs. John Small, 6800 N. Clunbury.

Mrs. Gordon Davis of Birmingham will give members pointers on "Table Settings."

Mrs. Gilbert Borquist will pour for the tea which will follow the program, and Mrs. Stanley Voorhis and Mrs. Zoe Copeland will serve on the hospitality committee.

Have You Met . . .

Word has been received of the birth of a son to the Carl Louisons of Ford, Ill., former S. Clunbury road residents.

Bride-elect Kathryn Ann Wilson was the guest of honor at a luncheon and party shower given by Mrs. J. R. Flickinger and Mrs. Ferd Hebble of Detroit.

Mention a charivari to young moderns and they immediately think of an old fashioned custom out of the past. But mention a charivari to newbies, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rossie and for years to come, they will remember Feb. 21, 1958.

For it was on this evening that their friendly fun loving neighbors arrived at their Bloomfield court home to the accompaniment of the clanging of cowbells, the tooting of horns and the clatter of tin pans.

Enjoying an evening of fun and dancing were Mr. and Mrs. George Beck, Mr. and Mrs. John Payne, Mr. and Mrs. John Pangborn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zeigler, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Snyder, Mr. and Mrs.

Club Sponsors Bridge Parties

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — Two more bridge parties in the series being sponsored by the Bloomfield Farms garden club were held Thursday.

Mrs. Ian Boynton, Mrs. Walter McCarthy and Mrs. Ray Martin entertained 24 players at the Boynton home on S. Clunbury road.

Mrs. Ian Boynton of S. Clunbury road was hostess to Mrs. Jack Bull, Mrs. Val Corradi, Mrs. Edward Wray, Mrs. H. E. Dahl, Mrs. Gordon Clayton, Mrs. M. Tate and Mrs. Richard Holmes.

With the series at the half way mark, Mrs. Martin Latur, club president, expressed her pleasure with the members response to the project.

On Feb. 19 the Twins hosted a cocktail and dinner party for 25 guests to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. John S. Andrews who are leaving the near future for Cologne, Germany. Andrews will be in charge of the Ford Works in that city.

The piece de resistance was the huge red and white cake lettered "Auf Wiedersehen. A morning the guests were Sir Patrick Hennessey and William Denene of England.

Irwin left Friday on a South American business trip with plans to return around April 6.

Film on Cancer Highlights Meeting

WALNUT LAKE—Highlighting the March 4 meeting of the Walnut Lake Women's club will be a film on cancer, through the courtesy of the American Cancer society and a play, "It Was a Lovely Meeting," to be given by the Magnolia Community club.

The cast of the play, under producer Fritz Busch, will include Helen Conklin, Elizabeth Leonard, Katherine Lemon, Dorothy Sturman, Marion Jewell, Nona Pettis, Lucy Lockhart and Viva Mousher.

Refreshments will follow the program, served by Mrs. John Parkins and her committee.

On Feb. 20, the regular meeting of the board was held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Vine. Plans were discussed regarding the luncheon supper planned for April 1 and a card party at Hospitality house on April 24.
