

South Berkshires Social Briefs

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vigi were hosts to 30 guests gathered to celebrate the couple's 20th wedding anniversary at their home on Leemore drive. Hors d'oeuvres and cocktails started off the evening, followed with dancing, games and buffet supper.

Mrs. Russell McKinney entertained a bridge luncheon Friday at her Stellmar drive home for Mrs. Howard Maynard, Mrs. Jessie Heath, Mrs. Alice Haner, Mrs. Herbert Fries, Mrs. Henry Jordstad, Mrs. Clarence Joy, Mrs. Earl Hope and Mrs. James Bradley.

Twenty-five members of Berkeley Junior Women's club will receive the hospitality of Mrs. Melvin Groves of Southme drive this evening.

Kathleen Parr, art teacher at Berkeley high school, will show slides of the Holy Land.

The Marvin Cline home on Stellmar drive was the scene Sunday afternoon of a quadruple birthday dinner celebration.

The Cline 4-year-old son, Bobby, shared birthday honors with his cousin, Steve Kuzmanovich, also 4-year-old. Also honored were Mrs. Cline, Bobby's mother, and Steve's father, George Kuzmanovich.

Joining the festivities were Bobby's grandfather, Clarence Cline from Jackson, his sisters Laura and Sue, his dad, Marvin Cline and Steve's mother, Mrs. George Kuzmanovich.

Florida vacation spots visited by the Selwyn Asquiths and children, Cynthia and Gregory, included Miami, Fort Myers and West Palm Beach.

The family returned home by plane ahead of schedule when the children were stricken with the flu. The situation in West Palm Beach apparently was quite acute, as Mrs. Asquith had to resort to calling the local family physician who prescribed medication via long distance phone to a West Palm Beach druggist.

Officers Elected By Women's Group

WESTCHESTER—A forecast of spring lent itself to the Westchester Women's association tea afternoon at the Birmingham Community house. Mrs. Edward Boile, association president, presided at the meeting which 80 area women attended.

Upon entering each member and guests was given a minigraph copy of the group's constitution which was later passed as amended. An election of officers followed.

President, Mrs. Edward Boile; Vice-president, Mrs. Henry Gluckstad; secretary, Mrs. Robert Mease; and treasurer, Mrs. Leon Jacobson.

Serving as hostesses at the door were Mrs. Damon Statton and Mrs. John Hahl. The tea table centerpiece was done by Mrs. Kenneth Chumette.

Tiny baskets made from lemons and filled with violets were conservation pieces, done by Mrs. Edward Schell. Pouring were Mrs. Schell and Mrs. Edward Boile.

Kalico Kickers Meet Each Month

VALLEY WOODS—If you are looking for an evening of fun, Mrs. Thomas Grove has the very invitation to offer. Mrs. Grove is in charge of arrangements for the Kalico Kickers, the Valley Woods square dance club, who meet once each month at Valley Woods school in the multi-purpose room at 8 p.m.

Friends, neighbors and area residents meet there for squares, round dancing and just plain fun. The next date to remember is March 14. No reservation is needed.

Plans Reviewed By Teen Club

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Hi-Fi Teen club members met Friday evening at the home of Laura Cline on Stellmar drive to review spring and summer plans for the group.

Valley Woods Social Briefs

The Ben Robertsons of Forest lane had as houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schaden of Chicago, Ill. As this was a combination business and pleasure trip, Mrs. Robertson enjoyed spending the time with her sister whom she has not seen for some time.

The Kenneth Bonds have been entertaining friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green of Sparta, Wis. This was the Green's first visit to Birmingham so the Bonds had a busy week showing them all the local shopping areas and points of interest.

The Charles Gregorys, formerly of Valley Woods, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to William Alan Werner of Mansfield, Ohio. Plans are being made for a June wedding.

The Gregorys resided on Smallwood drive and only recently moved into an apartment in Detroit.

Lion Fullback Banquet Guest

VALLEY WOODS—Pack B-15's father and son annual Blue and Gold banquet was held at Valley Woods school in the multi-purpose room.

A box supper of chicken was served and cupcakes decorated in blue and gold completed the menu. The tables were individually decorated by den mothers who were

1. Mrs. Donald Davier; den 2, Mrs. Arnold Wilson; den 3, Mrs. Gordon Walker; den 4, Mrs. Fred Houskins; den 5, Mrs. Frank Smith and den 6, Mrs. William Harris.

As a special surprise Tom Tracy, Lion fullback, was there to talk and give out autographs. Movies of the pantomime skills performed last January showed many a budding actor.

Andrew Seed, cub master, gave out 36 awards and welcomed 2 bobcats, Edward Fafar and Roland Bush into the pack.

Area Cub Scouts Attend Dinner

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Area cub scouts from pack 24 attending the annual Blue and Gold dinner at Birmingham Community house Thursday evening were accompanied by one or both parents.

Attending from den 4 were Larry Zimanski, Bonnie Nead and Paul Melchoe.

Den 2 was represented by David Moreno, Randy Schiffer, Michael Brinkman, Arthur Popper and Randy Anderson.

Randy Schiffer was awarded a gold and silver arrow. Arthur Popper and David Moreno received year pins.

Joint Meeting Announced by Club President

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—South Berkshires Women's association officers and board members met Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. John Long of Bermuda lane.

President, Mrs. Douglas Wood, announced a joint April meeting with the Valley Woods Women's association at the Birmingham Community house. The program will be presented by a decorator from the local department store, followed with a tea.

Mrs. Dallas Sprinkle, special events chairman, outlined plans for a spring dinner dance in the Hillcrest room at Devon Gables in May.

Mrs. Victor Zaitz conveyed a letter of thanks from the Gleiss Memorial in honor of toys and clothing collected by the teen club at Christmas time.

The Green club also received commendation in the Gleiss publication, "Volunteer Worker" for their efforts.

A VOTE OF THANKS was extended to Dr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Werner of Lusher road for hospitality extended at a recent Sunday skating party. The one-man job of shoveling snow from the pond had already been accomplished by Dr. Werner when area fathers offered to help.

A get-acquainted and welcoming party for new residents will be held in conjunction with the June meeting.

Interior Decorator To Address Group

VALLEY WOODS—The Valley Woods Women's association board met at the home of Mrs. Albert Gattward Wednesday evening. Under discussion were plans for the joint meeting with the South Berkshires Women's group in April.

Mrs. Donald Young has made arrangements for an interior decorator to address the group.

Next Monday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. the association members will gather at the home of Mrs. William Harris on Westlady road to hear "100 Years of Fashion."

Mr. Harris will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. William Moriarty and Mrs. Jack Bahr.

Theodore Johnson Is WNFGA Speaker

BERKSHIRES—The Berkshire branch of the WNFGA will meet March 4, 12:30 p.m., at the Birmingham Community house. Theodore Johnson, an authority on house plants, will speak on plants for the modern home.

Mrs. A. B. McCall will speak on how to force branches. Tea will be served by Mrs. Hope C. Clark and her committee, Mrs. Leo Moore, Mrs. John McRoberts and Mrs. T. J. Connell.

Are you thinking of buying a new home? Then read the "For Sale—Houses" columns on the Classified Ad page of this week's Eccentric.

Bingham Election Has No Contests

BINGHAM FARMS—Only incumbents filed petitions to appear on the March 10 ballot in Bingham Farms general election.

Mrs. Jessie Colwell will run for the third time as village clerk.

Haskell E. Wright, who was appointed to replace James Barrett as treasurer, will seek election as Bingham's second treasurer.

Walter J. Gerrick, assessor since incorporation in 1955, will have his name on the ballot, too.

Three trustee posts go unchallenged as John H. Longely, James McGuire and Neil Warren agreed to run again. Longely has just completed the unexpired term vacated by James Nunnally a year ago. McGuire and Warren are running a second time.

Voters will also decide whether to amend the village charter to conform with new state law and give their council more flexibility in using funds for road maintenance and construction.

Polls will be set up at Outland's Studios on 14 Mile road.

Files for Council

SOUTHFIELD—Mrs. Jean McDonnell announced Tuesday that she would be a candidate for the council of the proposed city of Southfield. Voters in the area will accept or reject a city charter and pick officers April 21. Mrs. McDonnell is the first woman to file. She is secretary of the township zoning board.

To amend the village charter to conform with new state law and give their council more flexibility in using funds for road maintenance and construction.

Polls will be set up at Outland's Studios on 14 Mile road.
