Heinle-Corbett Vows Said at Duns Scotus

Honeymoon Destination Laurentian Mountains

Dorothy Ann Corbett became the bride of Robert Lawrence Heinle at 11 a.m. Saturday at Duns Scotus in an ivory satin gown trimmed in seed pearls. Graceful folds of the full skirt fell to a chapel train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried white orchids and carnations.

Dorothy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Corbett of Cune-bridge, Lathrup Village. Her husband's parents are the Leonard Heinles of Detroit.

MRS. ROBERT HEINLE

MARGARET Corbett was the sister of the bride in red satin. She carried red and white feathered carnations. In identical frocks were bridesmaids, Beverly Heinle, sister of the groom, Rosemary Donaldson and Patricia Dolan. Ushers were Ted Corbett, Harry Enright and Paul Funk. After a breakfast and reception at Plum Hollow, the couple left for Florida. Newlyweds will live in Williamsburg for six months, then return to Detroit to make their home.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, parties are all now—call the society editor about them.

LATHRUP VILLAGE—A princess style gown of white Italian silk was worn by Marilyn Joan Sylvan for her marriage to James Edward Smallegan. The Rev. John D. Rose officiated at the double ring ceremony Saturday at Community Congregational church, Lathrup.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sylvan of Red River drive, Lathrup, and Mrs. Margaret E. Smallegan of Orchard Lake.

Honored by Dean At Colby College

NEW LONDON, N. H.—On Tuesday evening, Bill Matthews of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., was one of two students honored for academic achievement at Colby junior college. They were guests at the dean's 1st dinner. Mrs. Matthews is a liberal arts senior and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark D. Matthews, 175 Hickory Grove, Bloomfield Hills.

News copy submitted early is necessarily given preference, so the "early bird" usually gets the space.

Alenon lace and pearl accented the satin neckline and bodice of the bridal gown. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a tiny circle of pearl orange blossoms. She carried a crescent of amazon lilies and sweetheart roses.

MAID OF HONOR was Denise Ann Olds and bridesmaids, Mrs. Richard Meyer and Mary Kay McKenzie. Their empire style gowns were of peacock blue velvet with lace bodices. Braided velvet crowns of matching velvet intertwined with pearls held circular veils. Maids carried all white mums and the honor attendant carried mums and pink roses. Richard Pollock was best man and seating the guests were Dale Flier and Thomas Shawyer. After two weeks of skiing in the Laurentian mountains the couple will make their home at Cass lake.

ADVERTISMENT

Mary Gorham

"Exposes Facts on Losing Weight!"

Dear Mary: I try to watch my weight. My husband sure does and he's begun to complain. I want to a "crash" diet and though I lost some, the crash diet was worse than ever. He even made some crack about "reforming" a young chicken in an old hen with what I did? Thin-In - Spots. Dear Mary: Diet alone is not the answer, especially if it leaves you haggard in the face and neck. This sort of thing can make you rabby in places without ever reducing your hips at all. You need toning as well as slimming. It won't make you a young bird but it will keep you out of the stewing class.

Dear Mary: Why can't I lose weight with exercise if I faithfully keep at it. I like to walk and I think calisthenics are fun. Won't attendance at a gym class help, too? Active Inclined

Dear Inclined: You'll never get that active. Remember, it takes many a mile of hiking to move even a few ounces. Exercises have to take the form of a prize fighter's training regime before results set in. Steamers, rubs and massage may be fun at a price but they won't budge weight. So, unless you're planning on capturing the lightweight crown in the prize ring, you'd do much better to lose it the easy way, and in the right spots too.

Dear Mary: Why can't I get the same results that SlimZelle promises with a home reducing plan and equipment. Once I'd paid for it I'd be able to reduce myself and I would have something left when I was done. Ambitious

Dear A: The main thing wrong with a do-it-yourself plan is the lack of discipline that must of us allow ourselves; there's not any of the personal guidance and supervision so necessary for good results. No one weighs and measures you regularly and keeps accurate record of your progress. You may have something left when you're through, that's true. More than likely it will be inches that you still haven't lost. There's an easier (and better) way.

I'll be happy to answer any questions at all about figure and weight control. A note or postcard addressed to me, Mary Gorham in care of any SlimZelle salon will get you a personal reply by mail. We'll answer as many as we can in this column, too.

And, if you drop in at any SlimZelle salon you will find out just how easy it is to lose weight. A FREE trial treatment is yours without obligation or cost. There are no contracts to sign at SlimZelle either. Just call or stop by.
