

Every day affords most of us with opportunities to enjoy waking hours containing more optimism, cheerfulness, mental and emotional satisfaction. It, when seized with the impulse to grieve about something (most such gripes issue from trivial conditions) why not remind myself of the overwhelming blessings we already have.

Gail Winningham's Troth Revealed at Family Party

GAIL WINNINGHAM

Reservation Train Accents Theme For Cabaret Party

Many University of Detroit alumni and alumnae now living in the Birmingham area are making plans to attend the third annual U. of D. Alumnae Cabaret Party next Friday night at the Latin Quarter in Detroit.

Mrs. Edmund T. Nolan, of Hamilton, Bloomfield Village, is chairman of this year's affair. Mrs. Gilbert C. Goode, Jr., also from Birmingham, is handling publicity.

Others heading to the Latin Quarter about 9 o'clock that evening will be Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. DePuydt.

Sitting at a large table with the Nolans will be Mr. and Mrs.

Engagement of Gail Winningham to R. Michael Fitzsimons was announced by her mother, Mrs. C. C. Winningham of Bloomfield Hills and F. Lauderdale, Fla., wife of the late Mr. Winningham. Michael's parents are the George Fitzsimons of Detroit.

The announcement was made at an informal party at the Winningham residence last Saturday.

The bride-elect graduated from Pine Crest school, Fort Lauderdale, and attended the University of Miami, where she majored in Art. She was associated with Delta Gamma fraternity.

Her fiancé attended school in the Detroit area and at present is in his fifth year of engineering at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. He is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity and is awaiting commission as a lieutenant in the United States Air Force.

The couple plan a June 21st wedding at St. Hugo of the Hills church.

Glynn Payne, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Alton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. James S. King, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ziesow and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Goodrich.

Still others are Mr. and Mrs. James Heatherson, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lambourne and Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Besting, Jr.

Putting a new twist to the age-old hearts and flowers theme of St. Valentine's Day, couples entering the Latin Quarter will be greeted with a miniature train carrying table reservations in red lace paper hearts.

Added interest will be for couples who met on campus and now are married. The "reservation train" will carry tickets which will entitle those lucky pairs to a gift.

Dancing will be from 9 until 1 o'clock to the music of Frank Bridge and his orchestra.

'House That You Build'

Looking over blue prints for a new building are UCS women who will play a major role in the university luncheon Feb. 12. Mrs. Martin L. Butzel (seated), chairman of the luncheon program, and Mrs. C. A. Hall, decorations chairman.

UCS Women's Committee To Observe Anniversary

Twenty-three years of continuous, community effort will be observed by the Women's committee of the United Community Services when it convenes for an anniversary luncheon Feb. 12 at the Crystal ballroom of the Masonic Temple.

With the inspiring theme, "This is the House That You Build," the annual luncheon will highlight the multi-efforts of the UCS Women's unit in building greater public understanding of all community service.

Charter Membership Of Northbrook, 240

Northbrook PTA, youngest member of the Southfield association, has a charter membership of 240, of which 157 were obtained at the January school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth N. Larsen and Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson comprised the hospitality committee.

A PTA "Learn to Square Dance" is planned for tomorrow evening at the school with Bill Perkins as caller.

Tickets for the 8 o'clock dance will be available at the door with proceeds used to purchase needed equipment.

LOCAL RESIDENTS on the UCS Women's committee governing board and hostesses for the anniversary luncheon include Mrs. Edwin J. Anderson, Mrs. Charles E. Carey, Mrs. Neil C. McMath and Mrs. Edward S. Wellock, all of Bloomfield Hills.

Others include Mrs. Martin L. Butzel of Westwood, chairman of the program, Mrs. William H. Beatty, Mrs. Paul Penfield, Mrs. A. A. Hall and Mrs. Howard Robinson, all of Birmingham.
