'Pictures for the Home' Theme of Club Meeting

The Graefield Home Extension club met recently in the home of Mrs. Reilly Mead, 17988 Birwood. The lesson for the evening "Pictures for the Home", was presented by Mrs. John Leavitt and Mrs. Harold Hayes.

Different types of matting and framing were shown and interesting picture arrangements were suggested. It was brought out that pictures in today's home are often most effectively displayed in combination with other wall decorations like plaques, ceramics, scones and mirrors.

A re-valuation from time to

A three month business trip to Newark, Md. was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reines, 6 Lori, 5 and 3-year-old Gail. Reines is associated with the Theokal Chemical Co. and was sent to Elkhart, Md., on a project as a consulting engineer. The family lived in a trailer while away.

Mrs. Reines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Schmalkens, traveled from Mexico City for the holidays to see the family. All were houseguests at that time at Mrs. Reines' grandmother's home in New Jersey.

The St. Jane de Chantal guild had their Jan. 27 meeting in the home of Mrs. John Ward, Jr., 1689 Witherbee. Mrs. Robert Kaufman and Mrs. Charles Penninger were co-hostesses.

The women present, Mrs. Harry Lather, Mrs. Maurice Reardon, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. Leo Clougherty, Mrs. Robert O'Hara, Mrs. Clyde Mulhern, Mrs. Hugh Souff, Mrs. Thomas Anderson, Mrs. James Bower, Mrs. Maurice Beaumant and Mrs. Robert Distler discussed plans for a February tea for the Altar society by the guild members.

Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor of Derby road entertained some friends in their home recently for bridge.

Present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Don Ningsstaken, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eddy and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Donnelly.

A trip to Arlington Heights, Ill., was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knapp, 1510 Wrenwood, with children, Gayle, 10, and Tom, 8, and they were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Baule former Wrenwood residents.

While there the couple were entertained at many cocktail parties and saw a number of Detroit friends. The women especially enjoyed a shopping spree to Old Orchard shopping center which was designed by the same people who planned Northland.

Mrs. Maurice Reardon, 1076 Brooklawn road, had a meeting in her home this week for women of Holy Name's Altar society connected with their annual fashion show at Oakland Hills country club Feb. 8. Hilda of Birmingham will supply the clothes to be modeled by women from various guilds.

Present for the discussion were Mrs. Edwin Casenheiser and Mrs. Horzan Lawton, co-chairmen, Mrs. Harold Bickner, Mrs. Hard Zimmerman, Mrs. Edward Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. W. J. Riley and Mrs. Joseph Kaufman.

A baby shower honoring Mrs. Walter Ederberg of Brooklawn road was given recently by Mrs. Garth Hawley also of Brooklawn road. Guests included Mrs. Charles Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Robert Welch, Mrs. LeGrand Terry, Mrs. Robert Dyla, Mrs. Harry Lippard and Mrs. Donald Miner.

As a center piece for her buffet table, Mrs. Hawley chose a hurricane lamp surrounded by iris and carnations.

Newcomers to the Greenfield Terraces are Mr. and Mrs. Mark H. Careff, 557 N. Eton, and son, Kevin, 1. The Careffs moved here recently from Bedford, Ind.

Careff, who is assistant superintendent for the Birmingham school district graduated from Indiana university and received his doctor's degree at the same university.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Careff have listed golf and bridge as their favorite hobbies.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Simpson, 1889 Derby, returned recently from a business trip to Sea Island, Ga.

Simpson, who is associated with Ford Motor Co., attended the north regional meeting at the Cloister hotel. While there Mrs. Simpson took advantage of her free time by swimming, golfing and basking in the sun.

On one of the evenings the group enjoyed a southern barbecue on the beach. Pine fires were used and music was supplied by spiritual singers.

Highlight of the trip came when Simpson met his father, Robert C. Simpson who was enroute to St. Petersburg beach, Fla.

When the Derby bridge group met recently at the home of Mrs. Claude Phelps an unusual evening was planned. Using a hostess motif the hostess presented each lady with a box lunch which they enjoyed while seated at bridge tables covered with newspapers and centered with a bright red handkerchief. Prizes were hobo sticks with red handkerchiefs tied at the end.

The group consisted of Mrs.

Frank Seeburger, Mrs. Allan Diebold, Mrs. Franklin Bens, Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Germanan, Mrs. James Dodds, Mrs. Carl Greene, Mrs. Coyle Fisher, Mrs. Joseph Hardig, Mrs. Richard Monteth and Miss Arline Phelps.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, 1001 Norwich, entertained neighbors and friends recently at a skating party at Eton Park rink. Skaters were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Narry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Franden, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hohn, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Olen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. John Dolan.

The group enjoyed returning to the Thoms' recreation room after skating for dancing and refreshments.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.
