To Direct Easter Seal Campaign For Third Year

For the third consecutive year, Mathew Cammareri of Birmingham will direct the Easter seal campaign for the Oakland county society for crippled children.

Campaign dates are March 6 through Easter Sunday April 6. Said Society President Lloyd Megee, "we are indeed fortunate to be blessed with a man of such devotion to the cause of afflicted children to lead the 1958 Easter Seal Campaign."

CAMMARERI will spearhead a movement which will enable the society to give direct aid to more children than those now aided. Megee pointed out that the Oakland county society is one of 1,655 Easter seal affiliates of the national society for crippled children and adults with headquarters in Chicago.

He said, also, there are 60,000 private citizens, like Cammareri, who are serving as Easter Seal Chairmen or are active on boards and committees for Easter Seal Societies across the nation.

Megee revealed that the society hopes to be in its new home on Telegraph Road, near the County sealer-center, late this spring.

HE EMPHASIZED that "not one red cent" collected during the Easter seal campaign to be used towards the cost of the new building. Funds for the new home have been contributed for that sole purpose. Easter seal funds are used by the society for equipment and assistance given to our crippled children.
